Letter No. 384, dated 20th September 1902, from the Deputy Commissioner, Chitaldrug District, to the Superintendent of Revenue Survey in Mysore.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 55 of the 28th July 1902, forwarding, for my opinion, papers containing your proposals for the revision of the assessment of the Davangere Taluk, and in reply to express my entire concurrence as to the suitability of the increased maximum rates for dry and wet lands proposed by you. The old and the new maximum rates are shown below :—

	Old	New
	Rs. a.	Rs. a.
Dry crop land	2 0	2 6
	1 12	2 4
	1 8	1 14
		1 12
Wet land	8 0	6 8

2. For garden lands, a uniform maximum rate of Rs. 8 per acre has been adopted, the same as that sanctioned at the original settlement. But the revised classification of garden lands reduces the actual average rate from Rs. 4-6-11 to Rs. 2-13-9 per acre. This is very judicious and lenient.

3. It is proposed to divide the 255 villages comprised in the taluk into four groups as regards dry land. The proposed grouping is very judicious, influenced as it has been by considerations of soil, facilities of communication and the nearness to markets. The effect of the new grouping is shown in the following statement:—

Number of villages	Old maximum rate	New maximum rate	Difference	Remarks
	Rs. a. p.	Rs. a. p.	Rs. a. p.
26	2 0 0	2 6 0	0 6 0	1st group.
72	2 0 0	2 4 0	0 4 0
41	1 12 0	2 4 0	0 8 0	2nd group.
12	1 8 0	2 4 0	0 12 0
9	1 12 0	1 14 0	0 2 0	3rd group.
77	1 8 0	1 14 0	0 6 0
18	1 8 0	1 12 0	0 4 0	4th group.
Total ... 255

It will be seen from the above that the proposed grouping will seriously affect the 12 villages marginally noted, the maximum rate in which has been raised from Rs. 1-8-0 to Rs. 2-4-0 or 50%. The percentage of increase between the old and the new assessments in these villages, is apparently high, but their introduction into the 2nd group is justified by the richness of the soil and by their proximity to Railway Stations, village No. 1 being near Davangere, No. 2 near Tolhunse and the remaining 10 villages near Kodaganur and Maikonda. In the case of these villages, and especially Nos. 2 and 5 (Rungavanhalli and Chikmagadi), where the percentage of increase is 84 and 89 per cent, respectively, you propose to make special enquiry and afford relief, if necessary, at the time of the introduction of the revised settlement.

5. There can be no two opinions as to the lightness of the old assessment on dry land, the average being 9¾ annas per acre. The proposed rates give an average of 11¾ annas or 2 annas more. This increase is not much, considering the increased facilities of communication due to construction of the Railway, the opening up of new roads, the rise in the price of jolam, which is the chief product of the taluk, and the general enhancement in the value of land.

6. The total increase of revenue expected from the revised settlement amounts to Rs. 34,678 or nearly 22 per cent.

7. I do not know what the Bombay rules are in respect of the limits of increase to be taken at revisions of settlement; but I would strongly recommend the maximum limits being fixed, so that they may not be exceeded in any case.

8. I quite agree with you in the advisability of the irrigation cess being collected separately from the land assessment.

9. A good gravelled road from Hadadi onwards to Sulikere, connecting the latter with Davangere, is badly wanted. There is at present a cart-track over which there is heavy traffic, it requires to be improved.

10. In conclusion, I regret the delay that has unavoidably occurred in replying to your letter under reference. The Phut Pahani work is nearly completed, and the new rates may be announced in the next cold weather or earlier.

(2) Letter Camp No. 5, dated 30th March 1903, from the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, to the Secretary to the Government of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments.

Adverting to your docket No. R. 2406—R. F. 8-1900, dated 28th November 1902, forwarding for opinion letter No. 206, dated 30th September 1902, and its enclosures from the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, re the proposed revision of assessment in the Davangere Taluk, I have the honor to state that I proceeded to the taluk on the 24th February 1903, to study the question on the spot. I have appended hereto a memorandum of my remarks on the report. It will be seen therefrom that I am of opinion that the grouping of the villages, the rates proposed, and, in fact, the whole scheme have been carefully worked out, and that no alterations appear to be called for.

2. In the course of my remarks, however, I have touched upon a few questions of general importance, such, for instance, as (1) the advisability of introducing the Bombay practice of consulting the raiyats about the grouping of villages and the rates proposed (para 7); (2) the introduction of some definite principle in the assessment of lands irrigated by wells under tanks and existing at the time of the first settlement now liable to be assessed at discretion according to the rules of 1st January 1902 (paras 9-14); (3) the inexpediency of assessing Dhruvapairu gardens at rates far in excess of the wet lands (paras 16-18); (4) the enfranchisement of the service inam lands (para 23); (5) assignment of lands needed by the Excise, Forest and other Departments and their being shown in the settlement papers as "Kharab," thus avoiding all further interference as regards assessed lands (para 24).

3. I beg to suggest that the general questions may be considered and settled separately. They have not much bearing on the proposals for the revision of the settlement of the Davangere Taluk, having been touched upon incidentally in connection with the observations of the Superintendent of Revenue Survey, made in his report. Orders may be passed on the proposals for the revision settlement without delay.

4. As the season is now far advanced, it may perhaps be better to announce the rates at the next cold season and the revision assessment may then be introduced into the taluk with effect from 1904-05.

Remarks of the Revenue Commissioner on the Report of the Superintendent of Revenue Survey re the Revision of Assessment in the Davangere Taluk.

1. I think the stream is known as Shaglihalla which takes its rise in the range of hills dividing the Chitaldrug Taluk from Holalkere and flows in a north-westerly direction and drains the southern and western portions of the Taluk. The Sulikerehalla falls into this stream near Devarbelekere, a village about 8 miles south of Davangere, and there is only a small portion of it in the Davangere Taluk.

Para 6. Drainage.

2. The Taluk is now well provided with means of communication. Besides the railway and the main roads referred to in the Report of the Superintendent of Revenue Survey, there is the road joining Davangere to Jagalur, which is in progress and will soon be completed. Early steps should, I think, be taken to extend the present road to Hadadi and join it with Sulekere.

Para 11. Communications.

3. The flow of trade towards Wallajapet has since been diverted into other channels. The bulk of the trade is carried outwards and inwards by rail to and from Bombay side. The articles exported are oil-seeds, cotton and jaggory. A large quantity of grain is also exported whenever there is scarcity in any part of Northern India. A large portion of supari produced in the Nagar Malnad is exported to Birur direct and from thence to other places, and a considerable quantity besides goes direct to Bellary by carts via Holalkere, Chitaldrug and Challakere, the cartmen bringing to the Malnad on their return journey tamarind, chillies, tobacco and "Kamblis" The chief imports into the Davangere Taluk are sugar, kerosine oil, piece-goods and other sundry articles from Bombay. Cocoanuts are also imported from Tiptur.

Para 15. General trade.

4. It is satisfactory that no necessity was found for soil re-classification.

Para 18. Extent of re-classification.

5. The increase in the area of land classed as wet is due to the transfer of 600 acres from the head of 'garden' to that of 'wet or rice land', being the result of 're classification of rice and garden lands with special reference to the value assignable to the water-supply now enjoyed by the lands,' as ordered by Government in 1896. The transfer is an indication of how carefully the reclassification ordered by Government must have been carried out, and affords full justification for the recommendation made by the Superintendent of Revenue Survey, at whose instance the re-classification was ordered. The re-classification has resulted in appreciable relief being given to the holders of irrigated land which had hitherto been classed as garden.

Para 19. Comparison of old and new Survey.

6. It would have been interesting if figures had been secured separately for agricultural cattle as distinguished from cows, buffaloes and calves, and for sheep and goats: similarly if separate figures had been given for houses, thatched, mud-roofed and tiled.

Para 21. Agricultural resources.

7. I would here suggest that Government may be pleased to adopt in Mysore the Bombay practice of consulting the raiyats about the grouping of villages and the rates proposed, and also calling on them to point out any improvements made by them to the classing officers as detailed in Bombay Government Resolution No. 7447, dated 21st October 1886.

Para 37. Grouping of villages for revision.

8. Another feature of the Revision settlement which differentiates it from the original settlement is the highly liberal spirit in which lands under wells are proposed to be dealt with at revision. The principles laid down in Government Proceedings No. R. 3138-46—R. F. 8-1900, dated 24th January 1902, are based mainly on the enlightened policy of the Bombay Government in regard to assessing well-irrigated lands, and the proposals now before Government show that their application to this Taluk has resulted in reducing the average from Rs.* to Rs. , and giving to raiyats holding lands under wells relief which they badly needed.

Para 39. Principles of revised garden assessment.

*Information not available in the Report of the Superintendent of Revenue Survey.

9. The only point which, I think, the Rules of 24th January 1902 might be improved is in regard to the treatment of wells falling under classes II and III, and existing at the time of last settlement.

10. These are proposed to be assessed on their merits. The Superintendent is given discretion to fix such rates as he considers proper, the only limit laid down being that the old well assessment shall not be exceeded. In the practical application of this principle in Davangere, the rates have been brought to an average of Rs. 2-10-3 per acre, a rate sufficiently low to disarm criticism. What the present rate upon these gardens is, cannot be made out from the report, but there cannot be much room for doubt that there has been considerable reduction under this as well as under other heads of garden assessment, the general average of which has been brought down from Rs. 4-6-11 to Rs. 2-13-9 (see para 45). But it is still a question if these wells have been as liberally dealt with under the Rules of 24th January 1902 as they deserve. So long as the Government have at the head of the Survey and Settlement Department an officer of the experience and judgment of Colonel Grant, it may not be necessary to lay down any definite rules for dealing with such cases, but in view of the interests involved, it would certainly be a wise step taken if more precise instructions are given and limits fixed for the guidance of future settlement officers. I think a fair way of dealing with such cases is to limit the assessment to the highest dry crop rate or the lowest wet rate prevailing in the village, whichever is higher. I am aware that as we proceed south, especially in Kolar and Bangalore Districts, there may be some loss of revenue if this limit is adopted, but the present system of assessment on the merits proceeds on no principle and was adopted purely from considerations of expediency so that there may be no loss of revenue. No doubt we are not pledged to lower the rates in regard to these, wells but neither were we bound to show any consideration to independent wells the lands under which in the Chitaldrug District had been assessed nearly as high as lands under tanks. And in the case of these wells we propose, and most justly so, to bring the assessment within the highest dry crop rate.

11. What I contend for, is that the case of wells under classes II and III does not much differ from that of independent wells. The latter may cost more to build, but the recurring charges for lifting water are almost the same in both cases. Dependent wells, moreover, are liable to fail, when their source of supply, the tank, fails from any cause, while on the other hand any improvements made in the storage of water in the tank can only benefit the wells indirectly and remotely.

12. As compared with the holders of lands under a tank which get their irrigation by gravitation, the holders of lands under these wells which by supposition are on a higher level than the area (atchkat) commanded by the tank, are at a great disadvantage as they have to employ labour for lifting the water which the tank 'atchkat' gets by gravitation.

13. Further, in the case of tank-irrigated lands, a remission of half the assessment is accorded in case the tank, the source of irrigation, is breached, but no such concession can be claimed by a dependent well during the currency of the Settlement.

14. I think, therefore, that it is bare justice not to assess this class of well-irrigated lands higher than the lowest wet assessment obtaining in the village.

15. It would be interesting to have the old rates shown side by side with the new rates in the table given at para 40.

Para 40.

16. I think in the Bombay Presidency also the well bagayet was assessed within the highest dry crop rate and not at the highest dry crop rate as stated in the Report.

Para 42. Revision of garden assessment in Bombay.

17. It is not the cheapness of the well alone, but the labor and cost involved in raising water as distinguished from irrigation by gravitation where the only labor involved is leading the water to the fields. I make this remark in justification of my recommendation that the rates on these wells should not exceed the minimum wet rate.

Para 43. (Last two lines.) Principles of garden assessment adopted for Mysore.

18. With regard to taxing gardens containing cocoanut and supari trees which are known as 'Dhruvapairu' gardens (literally yielding permanent products), I think it is time that some definite principles were laid down. The present practice seems like taxing the produce or levying a tree tax; for the difference between the ordinary rice land rate and that which is levied on 'Dhruvapairu' gardens is practically nothing but a modified form of tree tax. I do not see why Government should not deal with them in the same liberal spirit as it has done in the case of well-irrigated lands, for the improvement in the productive capacity of the land in both cases is the result of money and labour applied to them by the occupants, and all that Government ought to take as the basis of their taxation is the value of the land determined by soil, situation and source of water-supply, if the last is the property of Government. There may have been justification for such special taxation when the Survey officers were new to the country, and both they and Government were anxious that the settlements should not result in any loss of revenue at a time when the resources of the country were not known. But we have now the experience of 40 years to enable us to gauge the result of past settlements and the resources of the State have been developed to the fullest extent. Government will have soon to face the problem of this special garden rate in the 'Malnad.' No doubt the question is complicated, by the existence of the Sayar duty; but apart from it there is clear testimony before me even as I am writing, of the garden owners having gone down perceptibly since I was here in connection with the Supari enquiry in 1891 which itself was necessitated by the declining condition of the supari industry. Like coffee, supari has fallen on bad times within the last five or six years, owing to unfavorable seasons, 'Koleroga' and continued fall in prices. There is always danger in taxing land on the products raised in it. Climatic and economic causes, discoveries in science and even a change in the habits and tastes of people cause fluctuations in the demand for these products which affect their remunerativeness and sometimes lead to their cultivation being abandoned altogether. Supari is a very exacting product and its cultivation has to be maintained at a high standard, and neglect even for two or three years results in irreparable loss necessitating the total abandonment of the garden or its conversion into paddy land.

Para 44. Lowness of revised Garden assessment explained.

19. While on this subject I have to note that it has been brought to my notice that the garden lands under the Honnur tank, 7 miles to the east of Davangere, have become very much deteriorated and that most of them are little better than ordinary rice lands. From the figures given in the statement accompanying the Report, it appears that the old and new rates of the village compare as follows:—

	Old		New
	Acres	Assessment	Acres	Assessment
		Rs.		Rs.
Dry crop	1,455	774	1,520	1,130
Rice	57	122	119	414
Garden	168	1,033	89	394
Total ...	1,680	1,929	1,728	1,958

20. It will thus be seen that while there is an increase in the assessment on dry crop lands amounting to Rs. 376 the assessment on rice and garden lands together has been reduced by Rs. 347. This is certainly a substantial relief to the garden holders, and as each garden has been inspected and the assessment imposed upon it is determined by its present condition as found at such inspection, I have no doubt that the rates have been equitably fixed. But as I understand that the gardens have disappeared or have seriously deteriorated, it may be as well that the rates are looked into again.

Para 45. Extension of irrigation.

21. Projects for constructing tanks across the Shaghihalla, one near Lokikere, and another at the point of its junction with the Sulekerehalla, are either ready in the Public Works Department or are being investigated. Another project for building a tank near Avergallu across the stream that drains the northern part of the taluk is also ready. The taluk is sparsely provided with tanks, but this is certainly not because tank irrigation is not duly appreciated by the raiyats. If these projects are carried out, they are sure to lead to extension of wet cultivation and add to the prosperity of the tract.

Paras 45 and 46. Results of Revision.

22. In the proposed rates for dry crop lands, the increase proposed is on an average 2 annas per acre or a little over 21 per cent on old rates. The rise in prices is shown to have been 41 per cent for jola, which is the staple product of the taluk, and the increase proposed appears to be quite moderate. The maximum for rice land is taken as Rs. 6-8-0, which is also fair. I do not consider that the taluk could have borne a higher maximum. The grouping of the villages and in fact the whole of the scheme have been very carefully worked out and no alterations appear to be called for.

Para 47. Other sources of increase.

23. Only one or two points of comparatively minor importance remain to be dealt with. The first is the enfranchisement of inam lands held for the performance of the pateli and shanbhogi duties. The remuneration of these classes of village officers has been fixed and is periodically revised and cash payment has been finally adopted for their remuneration. I think the jodi has been for a second time indented upon for contributing to the remuneration and the land cannot be expected to yield much in the future. It is a question if the time has not arrived for the lands being enfranchised on the revised jodi and confirmed in the names of their present holders. The treatment of these lands as service inam lands has been a source of much litigation causing unnecessary annoyance and loss to parties and throwing much avoidable work on the Revenue officers.

Para 48. Available assessed waste.

24. Another source of constant annoyance to the Excise and Revenue Departments and to persons wishing to take up assessed lands, is the present system of consulting the Excise officers before lands on which toddy trees stand are given out for cultivation. It will greatly simplify the work of Revenue officers if the Settlement officer could be authorized at the time of settlement to set apart lands that may be required by the Excise Department, and enter such assignment in the settlement papers. The lands required by the Forest and other Departments may also be similarly treated.

Para 49. Cost of Re-survey.

25. Considering the extent of the revision operations and their probable duration, I would again commend to Government the desirability of re-constituting the Survey Department on an economical and efficient basis, and also making such arrangements as may facilitate the native staff taking over the work when we can no longer command the services of its present head. Even as regards the present operations, I should think if a suitable re-organization had been made, the cost would have been much less.

26. It may be interesting to obtain information as to the cost per acre of the original survey and of the revision survey.

27. The limits laid down by the Bombay Government to increase of assessment in the case of the taluk, village and individual holding, may also be adopted.

Para 50. Limitation of increase.

28. As recommended by the Superintendent, the Government sanction and the period for which the assessment is fixed may be published in the Mysore Gazette, an approved form of guarantee being read out to the people assembled when the rates are being announced.

Para 54. Publication of Period for which revised assessment is fixed.

29. The revised rates may take effect from the year following the announcement.

Para 55. Year of levy.

30. In case the rates are to be announced during the current year, it may be necessary to extend the period for acceptance of notices of relinquishments up to 30th June.

Para 56. Extension of date for relinquishments.

31. I am also of opinion that gradual enhancement is neither expedient nor necessary for Mysore under the considerate revision that the settlements are undergoing.

Para 59. Gradual enhancement.

32. I agree in thinking that irrigation cess should be levied separately. I am glad that Colonel Grant has made this proposal.

Para 64. Irrigation Cess as a separate levy.

33. It would be interesting if information could be given as to what percentage of the survey numbers in occupation are cultivated by the occupants themselves and what proportion by sub-tenants under the occupant.

34. It may also be useful to ascertain how many wells are sunk on the bank of streams and how lands under them have been assessed.

(3.) Letter No. 37, dated 7th July 1903, from the Superintendent of Revenue Survey in Mysore, to the Secretary to the Government of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 4668, dated 23rd June 1903, forwarding for my remarks, a copy of the Revenue Commissioner's memo on the subject of my proposals for the revision of the assessment of the Davangere Taluk, Chitaldrug District, made in my original Report No. 55 of the 28th July 1902 and finally submitted to Government with my letter No. 206 of the 30th September last.

2. That the discussion on this, the first of our revised settlements, should run somewhat beyond ordinary limits was only to be expected, and I felt myself bound to deal with several points, notably the principles of assessing well-irrigated gardens at revision, at greater length than I could have wished, but I nowhere combated or took exception to the policy of Government as embodied in the Rules of the 24th January 1902; on the contrary I accepted those rules as my guide and such remarks as I made were in support and explanation of the policy they embodied.

3. The Revenue Commissioner now devotes the greater portion of his memo (paras 9 to 17 inclusive) to questioning the suitability of the Rules of January 1902, to an extent tantamount to a suggestion of their revision, if not completely, at any rate in their most essential provisions. He also (para 18) raises a fresh question regarding the principles of assessing what are known as "Dhruvapairu" gardens, that is, permanent gardens producing "perennial" products such as supari, cocoanut etc., but chiefly supari. I am quite as anxious as the Revenue Commissioner himself that the policy of Government on both the above important points, should be defined in the clearest terms, but such discussion as they may require should be entirely independent of the immediate question now before Government, which is the settlement of an individual taluk which presses very urgently for disposal. If Government so desire, I will submit two separate reports in reply to the Revenue Commissioner's remarks, (1) on the Rules of January 1902 and (2) on the "Dhruvapairu" question. These reports together with the Revenue Commissioner's memo will furnish a text for such further discussion or disposal as Government may direct.

4. Restricting my remarks, then, to that portion of the Revenue Commissioner's memo which bears strictly upon the revision settlement under immediate reference, I notice with satisfaction that the Revenue Commissioner at para 22 of his memo expresses unqualified approval of the grouping of villages, the dry and wet rates and the general increase resulting from my proposals, which last he characterizes as quite moderate. I may therefore fairly assume that the Revenue Commissioner approves of the results of the proposed settlement generally, not excepting the garden rates, his approval of which at para 10 cannot be said to be wholly unqualified; but if that paragraph be read as a whole, I think his remarks will be found to be directed more against the Rules of 1902 than against the rates actually proposed by me, which he admits are so low as to disarm criticism. A very few minor and subsidiary points need be noticed.

5. The absence of mention of the average rates both past and present on the gardens as classified under several heads at para 40 of my Report, is complained of, but I would observe that while it is easy to take out, as I have done, the average rates in question according to the proposed revision, it would be exceedingly difficult and but little instructive to take out the corresponding areas and average rates as they stood at the original settlement, the gardens since then having greatly changed and as regards several hundred acres, being at that time dry crop-land. I submit that the classification shown by me at para 40 is very detailed and shows clearly the working of the liberal Rules of 24th January 1902. The total average rate on gardens will now be Rs. 2-13-9 per acre against Rs. 4-6-11, but it must be remembered that the gardens as they now stand are not the same gardens as they stood at original settlement, for 600 acres of the latter (see para 19 of Report) have been transferred to the head of wet and 447 acres (class 5 at para 40 of Report) of the former, the revision area, are dry crop converted into garden and 171 acres (class 4 at para 40 of Report) although retained under the head of garden, are really very little better than dry crop land. The obvious conclusion, therefore, is that credit cannot be taken for the full drop in the average rate from Rs. 4-6-11 to Rs. 2-13-9. Still the latter rate must be considered extremely low, for about ⅓rd of the total area now classed at the revision as garden is situated under tanks (see class 1 at para 40 of Report). This average rate is in great contrast to the corresponding rate in the adjoining Bombay Taluk of Ranibennur, revised in 1878, where it was Rs. 4-15-6 per acre, a still further proof of the liberality of the policy now adopted by the Mysore Government for the superiority of the Ranibennur gardens over the Davangere gardens, if at all existing, is very small indeed.

6. At para 7 of his memo the Revenue Commissioner recommends the adoption for Mysore of the Bombay practice of consulting the raiyats about the grouping of villages and the maximum rates proposed. It is a comparatively recent practice in Bombay and before introduction, was objected to by the Council, but finally at the instigation of the President, agreed to in deference to the wishes of the one honorable member who started the idea. The reason for first rejecting the proposal in Bombay was that the Council were of opinion that it would only delay and inconvenience the settlement operations. This, I frankly confess, is my own opinion, but if it is considered for the good of the raiyats that the Bombay procedure should be adopted, I cannot oppose the measure on the grounds of any trouble which it may give. I would, however, observe that my opinion is not solely formed on that reason. No officers are brought into closer and more sustained contact with the raiyats than those of the Survey Department, and the progress of operations both measuring and classing, necessarily covering a long period, furnishes one long and ever-available opportunity for the raiyats to represent their circumstances to their hearts' content. My existing instructions to my Assistants are to consult the raiyats upon all or any matters affecting the grouping of villages, which, after all, is the real point which affects them and which they best understand, the maximum rates conveying to them but little information. The result of their consultation with the raiyats, my Assistants embody in their Annual Reports, or Special Reports concerning any particular tract as I may direct, and this procedure appears to me to be sufficient for all practical purposes.

7. The case of the Honnur tank, alluded to by the Revenue Commissioner at paras 19 and 20 of his memo, will as a matter of course, be carefully enquired into, indeed, I have already gone over the papers and think that the garden rates, although already greatly reduced, will admit of a very slight further reduction.

8. At para 23 of his memo, the Revenue Commissioner has, I think, misunderstood the intention of my remarks at para 47 of my Report, which applied to inams other than patel and shanbhog service inams, which of course have not been enfranchised. The ruling of the Government of India on the subject seems clear. The Revenue Commissioner here raises an entirely new question, upon which my opinion here can be of no use.

9. At para 24, the Revenue Commissioner touches upon a matter of extreme importance, the setting apart at the introduction of the settlement such lands as may be acquired by the Excise Department. I think that Section 39 of the Land Revenue Code empowers me to set apart lands required by the Excise Department, or for any public purpose, but the present matter is somewhat out of the ordinary course, and I will therefore briefly sketch what I propose to do at the settlement. As matters now stand, the imperfect record of the land which the Excise Department already possesses and the, often entirely unnecessary and always troublesome, reservations, in view of the Department's future requirements, have a deterrent and injurious effect upon the spread of cultivation. I propose therefore to enter in the Settlement records as unculturable all land now held by the Excise Department as well as all land which, owing to its containing a large number of date trees, or for any other good reason, that Department is likely to require. This done, the Excise Department could not reasonably claim, or seek to acquire, excepting under the most exceptional circumstances, any assessed land, and the Revenue officer will be free to dispose of darkhasts for all such assessed land without reference to, or consideration of the requirements of, the Excise Department. If the raiyats apply for land for cultivation in unassessed survey numbers, a glance at the Settlement papers will help the Revenue officer to decide whether the application can be granted. All this will no doubt require much care and trouble, but it implies a settlement which is very necessary and one which the Excise Department, judging from what it has hitherto done, could never carry out for itself; its interests too will be infinitely more kept in view than under the present system. The above remarks apply, as far as may be, to the lands held or required by other Departments. As regards the Forest Department, I would strongly urge the demarcation by fire lines or whatever may be the conventional marks in use, of all forests in anticipation of the Re-survey, as I am led to believe that many are still undemarcated.

10. I understand the Revenue Commissioner at para 25 of his memo to urge upon Government the reconstitution of the Survey Department, but regarding the grounds on which he makes this recommendation or regarding the nature of the reconstitution, he says absolutely nothing, thus precluding any remark on my part. Further on, however in the same paragraph he writes, "Even as regards the present operations, I should think if a suitable re-organization had been made, the cost would have been much less."

I do not for an instant believe that the Revenue Commissioner means to impugn the work done by myself or the Department under my control, but it must be admitted that the somewhat indiscriminate use of the words "re-constitute" and "re-organize" which do not mean the same thing, the remarks regarding efficiency and, in short, the wording of the paragraph generally, might possibly convey such an impression. The change from original survey to the "Partial Re-survey," sanctioned by Government on 16th October 1900, necessitated some internal Departmental arrangements, quite within my province, but in no case amounting to re-organization in the sense the Revenue Commissioner uses that word Those arrangements were such as my experience suggested and I am not aware that any other arrangements, consistently with the accuracy and efficiency of the re-survey for which I am responsible and, I may add, consistently with the means at my disposal, could have been made so as to reduce cost.

11. I cannot help suspecting that the Revenue Commissioner had in his mind, when he made his remarks as above, a correspondence, not official, which took place some time back between him and myself, in which the possibility was discussed of increasing the proportion of establishment to supervision, that is, the supervising by one assistant of two or even more field establishments, the test work being for the most part done by well paid surveyors. Later experience convinced me that such a plan would not answer. I however, which comes to much the same thing, increased the strength of each field establishment and shall continue in the same direction up to the limit of safety. I am of course only assuming that the above is what the Revenue Commissioner had in his mind and he may have some scheme in view calculated, as he says, to secure both economy and efficiency. Unfortunately, my experience, where Survey matters are concerned, has been that economy is invariably at the risk of efficiency. If the economy be misdirected as, for instance, in unduly withdrawing and cutting down supervision, it will be in inverse ratio to efficiency. If the economy be legitimate and safe, the standard of efficiency will be maintained, but a scheme which would not only save in expenditure but increase efficiency, is certainly, Survey being concerned, beyond my experience or expectation.

12. For the information desired by the Revenue Commissioner, at para 26 of his memo, I must refer him to the annual Progress Reports of the Survey Department, especially to para 11 of the Report for the year ending 31st October 1902, where he will see that 1,973 square miles were subjected to re-survey in that year, in my opinion a very large out-turn but one unlikely to be maintained when we come to the closer and better populated tracts.

13. The opportunity for announcing the rates during 1902-03 has now been lost and they will have to be announced when sanctioned, during the current year to take effect in 1904-05. I need scarcely dwell upon the advantage of announcing the rates early in the year. Their announcement early in the cold weather will give the raiyats plenty of time to consider them before actual levy, and will be very convenient to the settling officer.

No. R. 474-85, DATED BANGALORE, 11TH AUGUST 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—Davangere is the first taluk taken up for revision settlement under the Order of 12th September 1900. The Superintendent of Revenue Survey has in his Report No. 55, dated 28th July 1902, explained at some length how the condition of the taluk, especially as regards its communications, markets and prices, has greatly improved since 1865-66, which may be taken as the year of the original settlement, and how the introduction now of a revised settlement in the interests of both the Government and the raiyats, is justified.

2. There has been no re-classification of soil as there was no necessity for it, the original classification having been made carefully. Only the water classification has been revised with the result that about 600 acres of land, which were originally classed as garden, have been brought under wet. The well-irrigated gardens were dealt with on the principles laid down in Government Order No. 3138-46—R.F. 8-1900 dated 24th January 1902, resulting in substantial relief being given to owners of well gardens. The average on well gardens now is Rs. 1-15-10. Government would be glad to have the old area and assessment under wells mentioned whenever the information is available.

3. Government note that the Superintendent of Revenue Survey proposes to look again into the rates fixed for the garden lands under the Honnur tank.

4. General Results of Revision.—The average old and new rates compare as follows:—

	Old.			New.
	Rs.	a.	p.	Rs.	a.	p.
Dry ..	0	9	4	0	11	4
Wet ...	2	13	4	2	13	2
Garden ...	4	6	11	2	13	9

The rates are extremely moderate, and the total expected increase of revenue on the occupied area is Rs. 34,678 or 22 per cent. It will be noted that the price of the staple products, jola and ragi, has risen by 41 per cent and 34 per cent, respectively, and there is every expectation of the level of prices attained in recent years being maintained.

5. Government are therefore pleased to sanction the introduction of the revised rates with the guarantee of 30 years. As the season is now far advanced, the revised rates will be announced at the next cold season and will take effect from 1904-05.

A Notification to this effect will, as recommended, be published in the Mysore Gazette. The Superintendent of Revenue Survey is requested to submit for the approval of Government, the form of guarantee to be read out when announcing the rates in the taluk.

6. Government concur with the Superintendent of Revenue Survey and with the Revenue Commissioner that the irrigation cess should be shown as a separate levy.

7. The question raised by the Revenue Commissioner in paras 9 to 17 of his memo is important and may be dealt with separately as suggested by the Superintendent of Revenue Survey.

8. Government agree with the Revenue Commissioner that an order on the lines of Bombay Government Resolution No. 7447, dated 21st October 1886, concerning the practice of consulting the raiyats about the grouping of villages and the maximum rates proposed, may be issued.

9. The enfranchisement of Service Inam lands referred to in para 23 of the Revenue Commissioner's letter, is not a question that presses for solution in connection with this settlement.

10. The question of setting apart at the time of settlement, lands that may be required for purposes of Excise and Forest revenue, alluded to in para 24 of the Revenue Commissioner's letter, is referred to the Excise Commissioner and the Conservator of Forests for their opinion, on receipt of which, final orders will issue.

11. Government agree with the Superintendent of Revenue Survey and the Revenue Commissioner that there is no necessity for the Bombay practice being adopted in Mysore in regard to the points referred to in paras 54 to 61 of the Superintendent's report.

12. With reference to limitation of increase by revision settlement, noticed in para 50 of the Report, Government would be glad to have definite proposals from the Superintendent of Revenue Survey.

13. The Deputy Commissioner, Chitaldrug District, is requested to take the necessary action for providing a good gravelled road from Hadadi to Sulekere.

14. A singular interest attaches to the papers which mark the inception of the revision settlement, in that the proposals are submitted by an officer who was intimately connected with the original survey and settlement. It must have been peculiarly gratifying to Colonel Grant to find the accuracy of the original classification and the propriety of the settlement confirmed by the experience of 30 years, and to address himself to a task so much simplified by the good work previously done by himself and his brother officers. The circumstance of an officer who took part in the original survey and settlement of a taluk, submitting proposals for its revision more than 30 years afterwards, is, probably, unprecedented in the annals of modern Indian settlements. In conclusion, Government highly appreciate the satisfactory manner in which the scheme of revision has been worked out by Colonel Grant, Superintendent of Revenue Survey in Mysore,

15. The Superintendent will be good enough to select next one or two Malnad taluks for revision operations, so that succeeding Survey Officers may have the proceedings to serve them as models.

(1) Letter No. 333, dated 6th November 1902, from the Superintendent of Revenue Survey in Mysore, to the Secretary to the Government of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments.

I have the honor to submit for sanction, proposals for the revision of the assessment of the Hiriyur Taluk of the Chitaldrug District. My proposals include a portion of the newly formed Taluk of Hosdurga (see Gazette No. 20 of 15th May 1902) which, at the time I had put my figures into shape, and had commenced the field inspection preliminary to settlement as well as made other collateral arrangements, belonged to the Hiriyur Taluk. The present report therefore deals with 149 villages constituting the present Hiriyur Taluk and 55 villages belonging to the new Hosdurga Taluk.

Preliminary.

2. The frequent changes which have occurred in the constitution of the Hiriyur Taluk are very confusing, and it may be as well to trace them, although of no present significance or importance, so as to account for the 204 villages now under report:—

Old constitution of Taluk.

21 villages, old Chitaldrug Taluk settled, 1868.

Note—These 21 villages now belong to the new Taluk of Hosdurga.

53 villages, out of 91 villages, old Hiriyur Taluk, reported on by Major C. J. Prescott in his letter No. 377 of 18th April 1868. Settlement approved in Secretary's letter No. 630-8, dated 18th May 1868.

Note—Of these 53 villages, 31 have gone to the new Taluk of Hosdurga, 21 are now in Hiriyur Taluk proper.

130 villages reported on by Captain J. P. Grant in his letter No. 52 of 4th February 1869. Settlement approved in Secretary's letter No. 6014-142, dated 22nd February 1869.

Note—Of these 130 villages, 3 have gone to the new Taluk of Hosdurga, 127 remain in Hiriyur Taluk proper.

204

3. The number would have been 210, but 6 villages as per margin have been or will be totally submerged by the Marikanave Reservoir and disappear entirely from the lists. Other villages as explained further on have been only partially submerged and remain on the revenue lists.

Submerged villages.

1 Timlapur.
2 Irvon.
3 Ingaladhalli.
4 Piklihalli.
5 Bagenhalli.
6 Malgondanhalli.

4. Thus it will be seen that although the descriptive and other reports connected with the original settlement do not entirely lose their value and may be consulted with advantage (see Selections from the Records of the Mysore Government, Chitaldrug District, No. 7), it will be necessary to bring the whole tract under fresh description, because the physical characteristics and other conditions vary in a very remarkable degree, for so small an area, and bear strongly on the question of the revised assessment to be fixed:—

5. From the confusion there evolve two distinct blocks of villages now to be re-settled:—

55 villages transferred to the new Taluk of Hosdurga from 28th April 1902.

149 villages constituting the whole of the present Hiriyur Taluk.

204

The above blocks are clearly shown on the map which accompanies this report, and I will describe them separately, as likely to be of use when the rest of the new Taluk of Hosdurga is taken up for revision.

Villages transferred to new Hosdurga Taluk.

6. The 55 villages transferred to the new Hosdurga Taluk occupy, indeed are almost enclosed between, parallel ridges of low rocky hills, scrub-covered and broken, said to be auriferous. These ridges run at right angles to the Vedavati river, which flows east through them, and across which, just as it leaves this tract, has been constructed the celebrated Marikanave Dam. The Reservoir itself spreads almost in the centre of these villages, dividing them almost equally, north and south. The comparatively western position of these 55 villages places them in a great measure beyond the vicissitudes of climate which so seriously affect Hiriyur Taluk proper farther east. It is true that they are in the line affected by the Bababudan hills, which stand in the path of the S.-W. monsoon but they are themselves amongst the hills, which catch and retain the flying rain. The condition of these villages is very much that of the ordinary red soil villages of the Mysore Plateau. The mode of husbandry is the same and the size of the agricultural holdings is not abnormal. There is a considerable extent of unarable waste consisting of hill and scrub. The soil is of the ordinary red and sandy description.

Hiriyur Taluk proper.

7. The 149 villages which for the future will constitute the Hiriyur Taluk require very special description in certain points. A glance at the map will show that this taluk represents roughly a triangle, its western base resting on the hills from which the Vedavati river emerges and its apexsome 30 miles north-east on the borders of the Bellary District not far from Amarapuram. The Vedavati river flows north-east through the very heart of this triangle. The boundaries of the Taluk are, the new Hosdurga Taluk on the west, the Chiknayakanhalli and Sira Taluks on the south, the Sira Taluk on the east and the Chitaldrug and Challakere Taluks with a portion of the Bellary District on the north.

General description of whole tract.

8. The straight and well defined ridge of hills on the west, from which the Vedavati emerges, represents roughly the end of the red soil country and the beginning of its somewhat rapid gradation into the long stretches of black cotton soil which, under a precarious rainfall and owing to their extremely bleak appearance, excepting at crop time, have earned for the Hiriyur Taluk its not wholly deserved bad name. An account of this black cotton soil stretch, which may be roughly allocated as the north-eastern half of the tract, will be found in my letter No. 87 of 1868 printed with the original settlement papers. Directly the red soil country is left behind, indeed, wherever black soil is found, a great and, so far as the objects of this Report are concerned, a serious change begins. The area of the village unit at once grows larger, the dry crop holdings run to a size found nowhere else in the Province and the manuring becomes light. The cultivation becomes, in short, the reverse of what is known as close cultivation and one raiyat family can easily cultivate from 18 to 20 acres, or even more. The returns, inasmuch as water alone is wanting to quicken the fertility of the soil, are as precarious as the climate itself, magnificent crops being obtained in a good year and then, for many years, only average or inferior crops until the next bumper season. This black soil stretch is an imitation on a small scale of the Dharwar black plain without, however, the climate. The above points are important as explaining why such low rates, from two to three annas per acre, were adopted at the original settlement. These I will discuss further on.

Head-quarters.

9. The town of Hiriyur, the head-quarters of the taluk, is situated very centrally on the bank of the Vedavati. It has the reputation of being very unhealthy, but I believe the public health is better than it was, owing to a judicious shifting of house sites and other changes, amongst which I may mention the transfer of the Taluk Cutcherry from the south to the north bank of the river. Hiriyur is an ideal centre, being the crossing point of all the important roads the taluk possesses, and whatever may be its reputation for unhealthiness it is beyond doubt that the population of the town has greatly increased since the original settlement.

Climate.

10. The average rainfall at Hiriyur for 26 years was 16·78 inches. It must be considerably more than this in the western and south-western villages and somewhat less in the extreme eastern and north-eastern villages. What difference, if any, the presence of the Marikanave Reservoir will make in climatic conditions it is impossible to foretell.

Crops.

11. The percentage distribution of crops, applying to all the villages under report, taken from the statistics of 1901 may be considered, for all practical purposes, as typical of the average year. Jola, gram and cotton are the chief crops in black soil, bajra or segge in the better, but not necessarily black soil, and ragi and the usual miscellaneous assortment in the red soils.

Jola	32
Bajra	20
Ragi	10
Gram	7
Rice	1
Other cereals	18
Cotton	5
Oil-seeds	4
Tobacco	1
Condiments	1
Garden produce	1
Total	100

Garden.

12. The gardens by which will be understood either lands actually under superior garden produce, or lands irrigated by means of wells technically treated as garden, are on the whole inferior. The best are some cocoanut gardens in a few favoured valleys and bottoms. The usual crops under wells, excepting a very little superior garden produce, are rice, irrigated jola and ragi, vegetables and a very small quantity indeed of sugar-cane. Taken as a whole the gardens are extensive but scattered, they are of vital importance to this arid tract.

Wet or rice lands.

13. In the wet or rice lands, as distinct from garden land as above described entirely dependent upon tank irrigation without any aid from wells, rice is the chief crop, sugar-cane being only very occasionally raised. The tanks are fairly numerous but are of small capacity, the largest being the Dharmapur Amanikere in the extreme north-east. In this taluk, as throughout the district, it may be accepted as a general rule that dry crop cultivation being remunerative, tanks were only constructed where the conditions were very favorable and palpable and that there is room for more tanks were the people keener in the matter. On the whole the wet lands of this tract, although of great value in such a dry country, must be pronounced rather inferior.

Essentially a dry crop country.

14. The tract is essentially a dry crop one and, as I have already observed, the dry crop area under cultivation, for the population, is very great, representing roughly about 20 acres to each land-holder, all over the tract, an average which would be exceeded in the black soil parts but be considerably over the mark in the west and south where red soil preponderates. The future prospects of the Marikanave Project have been separately discussed and a feature in that discussion, one which greatly engaged the attention of the Irrigation Commission, was the question whether the raiyats, especially in the black soils, would appreciate irrigation. It is premature to discuss this matter here, and I will only remark that, in my opinion, the ease with which black soil can be cultivated under dry crops, and the temptation of bumper years, may prove a serious obstacle, not that the advantages of irrigation would not be present, but the raiyats, as is only natural, prefer easy work to hard work and work, moreover, to which they have not been accustomed. An immense tract of what is now purely dry crop land will be commanded by the Marikanave-channels and its treatment will require much future consideration for which matters are not as yet ripe.

Communications.

15. At the time of the Original Settlement there existed the main road from Bangalore to Harihar and the Tiptur-Bellary road, crossing each other at the town of Hiriyur north-east and north respectively, greatly benefiting the central and open parts of the tract under report.

Subsequent to the original settlement a new road has been constructed from Hosdurga to Pavagada, also passing through the town of Hiriyur and known as the Marikanave road. This road benefits parts of the tract under report, which at the Original Settlement were somewhat out of the line of traffic, viz., the villages on the west now transferred to the Hosdurga Taluk and the villages on the extreme east and north-east still remaining in the Hiriyur Taluk. This road is likely to become of great importance. The nearest railway station is at Holalkere some 15 miles from the extreme western villages but it is peculiarly inaccessible The Hosdurga Road Station is somewhat more distant but is easily reached. There is a great tendency of trade towards the Nagar-Malnad, and I think that a new road, to reach Holalkere and so the Holalkere Railway Station just beyond, would be of great service to the taluk generally and especially to the villages north of the Marikanave Reservoir.

Markets and Trade.

16. The chief local markets are Hiriyur, Aimangal, Dharmapur, Lakihalli and Marikanave. The last mentioned, at present new and only temporary, while the Marikanave works continue, is a considerable market. On the whole the local markets are not very important although very convenient. The northern villages benefit from the Davangere market and the Bellary demand; the eastern villages from the large and important market at Amrapur in the Bellary District; and the western and southern villages from their position with reference to Hosdurga, Huliyar and Holalkere through which the trade with the Nagar-Malnad passes. The whole tract now under report is a good deal outside railway influence, but it possesses good roads and if a new road from Marikanave to Holalkere be constructed, but little, so far as roads are concerned, will be left to be desired. I do not mean to say that the influence of the railway is not felt in this tract, but that, as compared with taluks like Davangere and Holalkere, the benefits of the railway, far reaching as they are, are less in evidence.

Objects of Re-survey.

17. The object aimed at during re-survey are clearly shown at para 16 of my report on the revision settlement of the Davangere Taluk, and it is unnecessary to go over the same ground again here.

Survey numbers, new and old.

18. In carrying out the re-survey 16,755 survey numbers have become 18,204 survey numbers. This represents less re-survey than was necessary in the Davangere Taluk, but allowance must be made for a good many old survey numbers which have been absorbed into the Marikanave Reservior; also for a good many instances, invariably unarable waste numbers, of unnecessary sub-divisions now clubbed into one new survey number.

Scope of revision Classification.

19. As in Davangere so here also the re-classification has been confined to the water-supply of wet and garden lands, as sanctioned in Government Proceedings of 5th November 1896, the original soil classification being utilized in rating. Re-classification has not been extended to the original soil classification in any case whatever, it having been found possible to utilize the original classification even in the case of old survey numbers subdivided into new survey numbers.

Happily also I have found it unnecessary to manipulate or adjust the original classification valuation, and certainly never by way of increase so as to bring upon certain classes of soil a percentage increase at variance with the natural proportion of increase which I am professing to consider justifiable for the tract generally on the basis of prices. In the case of the Bombay revision settlements of the Dharwar District, the original settlements having been carried out for the most part in the Forties, the old classification rating was often increased, the reasons assigned being that in those early days immemorial waste existed in great proportion and that the classers, although examining both surface and sub-soil, could not but be influenced by the uninviting scrub and stone covered appearance of the surface soil, and thus assigned a value to these waste lands in startling contrast to the value which would be assigned to the same lands when brought under careful cultivation; also that in the very early days of the Survey the proportionate value of the superior and inferior soils was misjudged. Thus in the case of the revision of the Ranibennur Taluk, adjoining Davangere Taluk, Colonel Anderson deemed it necessary to adjust, by way of increase or decrease, not only the old classification but also the classification valuation. He was however dealing with a classification and a rating effected in 1847-48 when the general system had not been perfected.

Method of Rating.

20. By 1863, when operations commenced in Mysore, Colonel Anderson had matured his views and much experience had been gained so that both the classification in the field and the classification rating were carried out on a full knowledge of the defects which had impaired the value of earlier classification results and, moreover, the proportion of arable waste had been decreasing year by year. It is not easy to explain or to ensure perception of these technical points but my meaning will be understood when I state that the original classification and the classification valuation for purposes of rating in this Province were sufficiently modern and, to my personal knowledge, so carefully judged, that any manipulation of, or tampering with, the original work is unnecessary. Rules for classification in Mysore have been very conservative, a high compliment to earlier operations. Alteration in the relative values of the classes, so as to allow for external influences, as apart from the intrinsic capabilities of the soil, has been resorted to but never has any necessity arisen for any change, amounting to what could be called an innovation on the general rules originally laid down for classification. The ascertainment and record of the intrinsic capabilities of the soil has been conducted under rules which may practically be said to have undergone no change. Where external conditions demanded some alteration of the relative value of the classes, this has been done, on a careful consideration of the climate and other circumstances of each tract, before being originally settled. In the case of the tract now under report I have confirmed both the original soil classification and the method of rating adopted. In future revisions some manipulation of the rating adopted may possibly be necessary but no such necessity exists in the present case.

Past and present Survey.

21. The area of each description of land according to past and present Survey is as below :—

Description.	Former Survey. Acres	Present Survey. Acres.
Arable dry crop land	266,099	253,582
Rice or wet land	4,153	5,526
Garden land	6,765	8,347
Unarable land	231,954	241,886
Total ...	508,971	509,341

There is only a difference of 370 acres in an area of 796 square miles. The arable dry crop area has decreased by 12,517 acres as explained below :—

	Acres.
Arable dry crop in 6 villages submerged	1,946
Do in 13 villages partly submerged ...	4,702
Do converted into wet	1,373
Do converted into garden	1,480
Total ...	9,501

The balance of the difference, in round numbers 3,000 acres, is accounted for by its having at various times been taken up for public purposes and the assessment struck off.

It is gratifying to find irrigation extended, since original settlement, by 2,853 acres due, in fairly equal degree, to tanks and wells respectively.

Lands submerged by Marikanave Reservior.

22. The Marikanave Reservoir submerges, or will submerge, land appearing in the present registers as below :—

	Acres.
Unarable	6,510
Assessed dry crop	6,648
Do wet land	14
Do garden land	5
Total ...	13,177

which, under the revised settlement, will be all entered as unarable included in the Reservoir. Only part of the Reservoir basin is in the tract now under report.

Population.

23. The extent to which population has increased since the Original Settlement is shown below :—

1853 Kaneshumâri	1868 Survey	1871 Census	1881 Census	1891 Census	1901 Census
30,785	36,224	61,866	40,163	54,307	66,290

I had a census taken during re-survey which gave a total of 49,123 against 36,224 in 1868. These are survey figures and exclude Inam villages. We must be guided however by the census figures which cover nearly the whole period and tell the usual tale of terrible loss during the great famine, followed by remarkable recuperation.

Census figures.

24. By the courtesy of the Director of Statistics and Census Superintendent, the details of the population of 1901 have been placed at my disposal.

The following excerpt will be sufficient for all practical purposes. The figures of course include dependents :—

Land-holders	33,770
Rent payers	8 776
Agricultural labour	1,915
Labour other than agricultural	9,513
Cotton industry	827
Administration	1,798
Masons and builders	1,090
Shop-keepers	977
Village service, artizans, petty occupations, etc. ...	6,694
Total ...	66,290

Abnormal population.

The tract is purely agricultural, but the large number shown under "labour other than agricultural" evidently indicates the presence of a certain amount of abnormal population due to the progress of the Marikanave Works. Making every allowance, however, for this fact, there is no doubt that population has increased and as regards the people connected with the Marikanave Project, many may remain after the completion of the work.

Population per square mile.

25. The population of the tract now under report comes to just over 83 per square mile against 67·28 estimated by Mr. Rice on the Census of 1891 (see Gazetteer page 506, Vol. II) and as against 122·2 for the whole District. Hiriyur has always been regarded as the scantiest populated taluk of the district, a position which I feel sure will now be occupied by the Challakere Taluk.

Agricultural resources.

26. The following statement shows, under the few heads for which I am able to supply statistics, the past and present agricultural resources of the tract :—

	Original Settlement 1868	Revenue Survey 1901	Increase	Decrease
Houses ...	8,558	14,021	5,463
Cattle ...	64,874	54,821	...	10,053
Carts ...	328	1,415	1,087
Ploughs ...	5,800	7,697	1,897

The figures for 1868 were collected by the classers, those for 1901 by the measurers, but, for purposes of comparison, they are fairly reliable.

The increase in the number of houses is justified by the increase in population.

The increase in the number of carts is very significant pointing to enlarged export trade, while the increase in the number of ploughs suggests that the decrease in the number of cattle has not been amongst superior animals, a conclusion which the increased number of carts also points to. Nearly 30,000 acres, and of course of the best land, has been absorbed into cultivation, which will fully account for the grazing lands supporting some 10,000 fewer animals, not necessarily bullocks, than at the time of the original settlement.

Prices.

27. As usual, the percentage increase in prices during the period under consideration cannot be established with nicety. From 1868 to 1881 not only is information defective but the famine years come in. From 1881 price lists were kept with more regularity and Mr. D. Appu Rao, Deputy Superintendent (see Appendix A to Davangere Revision Settlement Report) estimated, after examining a great many accounts of merchants, local and other, and checking them with the Taluk accounts, that the prices of jola, the most important of all, and of kadle, also very important, had risen from 1881 to 1895 by 38 and 36 per cent respectively. Up to date prices have risen since 1895. Mr. Appu Rao's conclusions are entitled to great weight especially if borne out from other sources of information.

Statistics.

28. The Director of Statistics published in the Mysore Government Gazette of 6th March 1902 the following retrospect of prices for quinquennial periods since 1885. The figures are in seers (of 80 tolas) and decimals of a seer per rupee :—

Period.	Rice, 1st sort.	Rice, 2nd sort.	Ragi.	Jola.	Bengal gram.	Remarks.
1886—1890	11·12	13 26	49·06	41·20	13 51	The figures are for the Chitaldrug District.
1891—1895	9·32	10·74	36·03	30 35	11 90
1896—1900	8 57	9 25	25 85	22·88	10·10

The above figures more than bear out Mr. Appu Rao's conclusions. The Director gives similar figures for all the districts of the Province, and in two Districts, Bangalore and Mysore, his figures go back to 1871-75 showing less remunerative prices than for 1886-90, which is important, as supporting my contention that prices were better for the raiyats in 1881 than they were at the introduction of the present settlement. There is remarkable uniformity in the fluctuation of prices throughout the Province, still more so in individual districts, and, for all practical purposes, the prices current at Davangere would serve for our purposes for any taluks of the district, due allowance being made for distance and difficulties which intervene.

Conclusions as to general rise in prices.

I am justified in concluding that prices, since the original settlement, have risen by from 30 to 40 per cent and that this increase applies to all important products. In Appendix A will be found a not very complete statement of prices as derived from various sources.

Sales and mortgages.

29. In Appendix B will be found 60 cases of ordinary sales of land and 17 cases of land mortgaged, out of some 1,300 and 260 examined respectively. The cases selected are not special, there being many more of the same kind, but they are certainly intended to show the high value attached to land and how little the survey assessment is taken into consideration as affecting the value of land in the market. There were a good many cases including houses and other things than the land, and these I have of course excluded. There were also a good many instances of land mortgaged to Government in connection with the Well-Sinking Rules, but these I have also excluded. The results, in the cases I have selected, which may be considered to be somewhat above the average for the whole, are extraordinary for a taluk so poor as Hiriyur is considered to be, the prices obtained representing, in the case of sales, an average of 33 times the assessment, and, in the case of mortgages, 39 times the assessment. I have no intention of attaching too much importance to these transactions, and the lightness of the assessment must not be lost sight of, but there is no doubt that they are favorable indications.

General conclusions.

30. I may claim to have so far established certain points which I will briefly sum up. Communications have been improved and added to locally, while the improvements, in the same direction, in the Province generally, especially the Railway, have made their influence felt, population has increased and prices have risen, at the very lowest estimate, more than 30 per cent. When things go well with the Indian raiyat, but little change is apparent in his mode of living, nor is he constitutionally prone to indulge in any unwonted luxury, and the evidence of prosperity is to be found in extended cultivation, more and better dwelling houses, increased carrying powers and more agricultural implements, all of which signs are apparent in the present instance. Cattle alone are fewer and this is accounted for by the absorption into cultivation of nearly 30,000 acres of the best land. In all the Dharwar Taluks revised, and in Davangere the first revised taluk of Mysore, a decrease in the number of cattle was a marked feature and to a far greater extent than in the tract under report. I doubt if there will be found to have been an increase in the number of cattle in any part of this Province, but from the great increase in the number of carts and ploughs there can be no reasonable doubt that the decrease has been amongst the inferior and neglected animals and is in the main due to the spread of cultivation. But what in my opinion is the most satisfactory feature of the present day, and indeed represents the main consideration in fixing the revised assessment is, as apart from actual rise, the stability of prices and, the causes of their maintenance being permanent, the impossibility of the recurrence of the old unremunerative prices. The raiyat not only gets better prices now, but he sells articles of produce which 30 years ago he never dreamt of selling. It is indeed a fact that, at the time of the introduction of the present settlement, the staple products, such as ragi and jola, could not be sold in years of low prices, their bulk being too great in proportion to their price, to admit of profitable exportation.

Revenue History.

31. The above remarks bring me to the revenue history of the tract which will be found illustrated by figures in Appendix C, an excerpt from which I give below:—

Year.	Government occupied land.		Government arable unoccupied land.		Remarks.
	Acres.	Collections.	Acres.	Assessment.
1869-70	167,570	52,8 7	93,929	14,618
1876-77	193,534	42,978	75,554	11,794	Rs. 13,061 remitted.
1877-78	175,111	53,443	94,485	13,702
1887-88	178,197	53,332	93,020	15,971
1897-98	206,686	60,647	66,388	10,566
1900-01	208,556	61,411	65,143	10,424

I will not answer for the absolute correctness of the above figures, supplied by the Revenue authorities, but I believe that what errors may exist are trivial and do not affect the object for which I have quoted them. Special years have been selected, best calculated to fully illustrate events.

I have not shown the collections previous to the survey settlement, it being sufficient to refer to the various settlement papers quoted at para 4, and to state that the original survey settlement amounted to little more than a re-distribution, on a scientific basis, of the old assessment. Under a settlement so favorable to the raiyat, the best results were to be expected and there was the fullest promise up to 1876-77, the occupied area having increased from 167,570 to 193,534 acres, but the famine upset all hopes and calculations, 1876-77 becoming a year of remissions, while 1877-78 witnessed the outright abandonment of a very considerable area.

By 1887-88, ten years later, a fair recovery had been made and from this point the spread of cultivation has been uninterrupted. Complete railway communication between Mysore and Bombay in 1888-89 marks the first important leap upwards, since which time the area under occupancy has steadily increased. The available assessed waste in 1900-01 stood at 65,143 acres as against 93,929 acres in 1869-70.

Original Settlement.

32. The original settlement of the Hiriyur Taluk which, as now constituted, corresponds very closely with the 130 villages reported on by me in my letter No. 52 of 4th February 1869 (see page 56 of Selections) presented some curious points. The settlement of this, the most lightly assessed taluk of a lightly assessed district, provoked some comment. Astonished apparently that the survey rates on dry crop land should show an average of only 2 annas 9 pies per acre, the general public commented freely and a not unusual country-side jest was to allude to Hiriyur as an Inam taluk, but the circumstances which dominated the settlement, and which still confront us, were overlooked. These I must briefly recapitulate as being of great importance, not so much with reference to what has been done as with reference to what is now before us.

33. Prior to the survey the dry assessment, devised by Col. Dobbs, was not upon the land but upon the plough, and was levied under the head of plough tax. When the land was measured up by the survey, as pointed out, to which there was no objection, there being no adverse possession, a very large area was found to be occupied which, when placed in juxtaposition with the old collections, showed that the raiyats had actually been paying an average rate of just 2½ annas per acre. The population was only 47 to the square mile, more than half the total arable area was unoccupied and the climate was notoriously uncertain. What weighed greatly with me also was the fact that the cultivation was, so to speak, wide and loose, an ordinary raiyat family requiring 20 acres or more to keep it employed, whereas half that area and often less, would suffice in other taluks. The survey rate to be imposed acquired in fact double significance, inasmuch as a raiyat could not do with less than double the area which would be sufficient for a raiyat elsewhere. In short, in instituting a comparison between loose cultivation and what is called close cultivation, as to the weight of the assessment, the assessment of an ordinary holding in each case, not the rate per acre, should be considered. In this view of the case the average rate of 2¾ annas, which was what my proposals gave for dry crop land, was not so very low for a notoriously poor taluk like Hiriyur.

34. Whether the above views were right in theory or not, it is certain that my proposed settlement was accepted by Government in exceptionally cordial and almost flattering terms (see page 63 of Selections), and I think I am justified in stating that during the great famine both raiyats and the officers employed appreciated, for very obvious reasons, the leniency of the survey rates.

35. I will however confess that, when I was submitting my original proposals, I was assailed by some doubts as to whether I was not to some extent sacrificing the just demands of Government, in making the settlement too much of the nature of a concession or "Kowl" calculated to ease off the transition from an irregular and loose system of revenue management to one of a hard and fast nature. I will even admit that I thought it likely that when the revision settlement came to be made, the taluk, for the above reasons, would bear a little higher raising of the assessment, relatively, than other taluks. I no longer hold that view and am convinced that low rates of assessment are imperative.

36. Magical as is the effect of contact of water with the soils of this tract, that water cannot be counted on to come either in sufficient quantity, or at the right time. The rates which in a bumper year would be ludicrous in their inadequacy would, in a bad year, and still more in a series of bad years, be, to say the least, appreciable, if not oppressive. Under such circumstances any settlement must be somewhat of the nature of a lottery, and I think we are bound to rob it as much as possible of the element of uncertainty and to give the raiyat the best of the chances. If we revise the rates strictly within the limits justifiable by rise in prices, we shall be retaining the full virtue of low rates which this tract requires. The present rates have worked admirably and, revised on the above basis, the raiyats will be in a better position than they were in 1869 and will heartily acquiesce in the action of Government.

New grouping.

37. Having thus compared the circumstances of the tract, past and present, as far as possible with the material at my disposal, and indicated the lines I propose to proceed upon, I may take up the question of grouping the villages under report for the purpose of fixing the new assessment. I may at once state that I have adhered to the old grouping excepting when altered circumstances clearly demand a departure.

Such cases have been few :—

I. 67 villages to the west and south where the climate is best. For these I propose a maximum dry crop rate of Rs. 1-4-0.

Note.—In the original settlement 65 of these villages had a maximum dry crop rate of Re. 1-0-0 and 2 of Re. 0-12-0.

II. 44 villages somewhat nearer the dry open part of the tract, where the conditions on the whole are similar to those in group I, but the climate somewhat less certain. Proposed maximum dry crop rate of Re. 1-0-0.

Note.—In the original settlement 32 villages had a maximum dry crop rate of Re. 0-12-0 and 11 villages of Re. 0-8-0, while one village had a maximum dry crop rate of Re. 1-0-0, the same as now recommended.

III. 93 villages occupying, broadly speaking, the north-eastern and greater part of the tract and containing the black cotton and better soils laboring under the disadvantage of a most precarious rainfall. These villages cover a very large area and are those to which my remarks at paras 33 to 36 most pointedly apply. Proposed maximum dry crop rate Re. 0-10-0.

Note.—In the original settlement 1 village had a maximum dry crop rate of Re. 0-12-0, 52 villages of Re. 0-8-0 and 40 villages of Re. 0-6-0.

It is in my opinion quite unnecessary to treat differently the villages which were assessed at a Re. 0-8-0 maximum and at a Re. 0-6-0 maximum. Circumstances have altered and all may fairly come into one and the same group.

Wet maximum.

38. For wet or rice land I propose to adopt the old maximum rate of Rs. 6-0-0 for all the villages. In a poor taluk like that under report every acre brought under irrigation is so much gain, and I am unwilling to recommend any increase of the existing maximum. The tanks, although fairly numerous, are of poor capacity. The wet area has increased by 1,207 acres during the currency of the settlement. There is still before us the problem of dealing with the Marikanave Irrigation, but the maximum now recommended will in no way complicate matters. The Marikanave Project, so far as the land commanded by the channels is concerned, is as yet quite undeveloped.

Garden maximum.

39. The maximum garden rates, under the present settlement, were Rs. 12 and Rs. 3 for tank garden and well garden respectively. I propose Rs. 10 for tank garden while well garden will be assessed on the general lines laid down in Government Proceedings No. R. 3138-46—R. F. 8-1900, dated 24th January 1902. The maximum rate of Rs. 10 for tank garden is purely nominal, as this rate will never be reached in the revision settlement.

Principles of Garden Assessment at revision illustrated.

40. While on the subject of garden assessment, I would invite attention to paras 39 to 44 of my report on the revision settlement of the Davangere Taluk, where I fully explained the principles upon which garden lands, and more especially those irrigated from wells, had been dealt with at revision, and the explanation applies equally to the revision now in hand. I will not go over the same ground again, but as the matter is one of great importance, I will anticipate the exhibition of general results by showing how the gardens of this tract, of which there are 8,347 acres under all tenures, have been assessed under the settlement now proposed :—

	Acres.	Assessment	Average rate Rs. a. p.
1 Garden under tanks	2,047	6,007	2 15 0
2 Gardens under wells dependent on tanks ...	9	17	1 14 0
3 Gardens under wells so recorded at last settlement ...	4,716	6,445	1 6 0
4 Gardens under wells as above but water failed ...	371	315	0 13 7
5 New gardens under wells sunk since settlement ...	1,204	778	0 10 4
Total ...	8,347	13,562	1 10 0

No explanation can speak so clearly as the above figures. The rates are moderate to a degree, and the policy adopted by the Mysore Government, as regards assessing gardens under wells at revision, has been eminently favorable and admirably suited to the poor tract under report, but I will not conceal the fact hat a considerable amount of revenue has been lost owing to the necessarily strict observance on my part of the rules of 24th January last. Those rules, so far as the "Dhrupairu" question is concerned, require revision (see para 44 of Davangere Taluk Revision Report); however I have promised a separate report on this point and will only remark that, so far as the poor tract under report is concerned, where every incitement to superior cultivation should be used, there is no cause for regret that a few superior gardens should have been assessed at somewhat unduly low rates. The garden area (Government) has increased from 6,433 acres at original settlement to 8,693 acres in 1901, a matter for congratulation, and I have not the slightest doubt that with the rates now proposed and the confidence in the policy of Government which they must inspire, very great progress in the extension of well irrigation may be expected. The country is wide and there is a very large proportion of unarable waste, so there is plenty of room for more wells.

Effect of proposed settlement on the various descriptions of land.

41. The results which may be expected from the adoption of the rates which I have now proposed, are shown in detail in Appendix D, but one or two excerpts will be useful. Below are summarized the results of my proposals as affecting the recognized descriptions of land, dry, wet and garden, for the occupied Government land:—

Description.	By former settlement			By revision settlement.
	Acres.	Assessment	Average rate.	Acres.	Assessment.	Average rate
		Rs.	Rs. a. p.		Rs.	Rs a. p.
Dry	198,215	37,214	0 3 0	189,900	47,313	0 4 0
Wet	3,908	8,014	2 0 11	5,117	11,588	2 4 3
Garden	6,433	15,076	2 5 6	8,093	13,290	1 10 3
Total .	208,556	60,335	0 4 8	203,110	72,191	0 5 8

Certain points deserve special notice. The dry occupied area has decreased, chiefly by the absorption into the Marikanave Reservoir of 6,648 acres of occupied land and by the transfer of 1,209 acres from dry to wet, and 1,660 acres from dry to garden.

The wet area has increased by 1,209 acres, and as the average rate, on the same maximum, has risen from Rs. 2-0-11 to Rs. 2-4-3 per acre, it is evident that some of the new irrigation is superior and that, on the whole, the tanks have not deteriorated.

The garden area has increased by 1,660 acres but the average rate, owing to the liberality of the well assessment policy, has fallen from Rs. 2-5-6 to Rs. 1-10-3. The loss occurs chiefly in Group I. The above points allowed due weight, an increase of Rs. 11,856, or just under 20 per cent, has been obtained by raising the average rate of the total occupied area by just one anna, which is also just the difference when applied to the dry crop area alone. I am fully aware that this settlement lies open to the charge of being too liberal. I can only appeal to the reasons which I have already fully entered into why so poor a tract should be liberally dealt with. I consulted the Deputy Commissioner before finally deciding, and his opinion in favor of low rates is, if anything, stronger than my own. Even as I now write the reason reports up to the 13th instant show prospects, although by no means disheartening, to be far less hopeful in Hiriyur and some other parts of the Chitaldrug District than in the Province generally.

42. As regards the distribution of the increase of Rs. 11,856 over the various groups the following figures are submitted :—

Distribution over groups.

Group or Class	Number of villages in each	By former Survey		By Revision Survey						Increase of assessment per cent on occupied land
		Government occupied land		Government occupied land		Government assessed waste		Total
		Acres	Assessment	Acres.	Assessment.	Acres	Assessment	Acres	Assessment
			Rs.		Rs.		Rs.		Rs.
I	67	26,816	11,223	24,153	11,428	20,169	5,667	44,622	17,095	2
II	44	37,240	11,419	35,031	15,056	16,020	2,200	51,051	17,256	33
III	93	144,500	37,693	143,626	45,697	26,660	3,775	170,286	49,472	21
Total	204	208,556	60,335	203,110	72,191	62,849	11,642	265,959	83,833	20

The disparity in the ratio of increase is of course most marked, but the explanation is simple. In Group I nearly 3,000 acres of occupied land have gone into the Marikanave Reservoir and, moreover, Rs. 673 have been decreased on the irrigated land, wet and garden together. In Group II the percentage of increase is high because the assessment of the wet and garden lands, together, has increased by Rs. 1,457. In Group III alone are matters fairly normal but, even here, there has been an increase in the assessment of the wet and garden lands together, of Rs. 973.

Taken on the dry crop alone, the ratio of increase is not startling, the average rates in each group being as below :—

Group.			Old average dry rate. Rs. a. p.	New average dry rate. Rs. a. p.
I	...	...	0 4 0	0 5 2
II	...	...	0 3 6	0 4 11
III	...	...	0 2 8	0 3 7
	Total	...	0 3 0	0 4 0

New Irrigation.

The increased irrigation due to new works since the original settlement, all occurs in Group II and is the result chiefly of a large tank constructed near Udvalli a few miles south of Kasba Hiriyur.

Sources of additional revenue.

43. I will make no estimate of any additional revenue which may accrue from Jodi lands where the revised assessment is still less than the Jodi and yet more than the old assessment, nor yet of the additional emoluments to patels and shanbhogs. These two items will, to a certain extent, balance one another and, at all events, are inherent parts of the new settlement and will work out their own solution, any estimate being unnecessary.

Local and Irrigation cesses.

44. There will be the local cess of one anna on each rupee of assessment and the irrigation cess of one anna on each rupee of wet or garden assessment. These being fixed, proportional amounts require no estimate. As in Davangere so here also I propose that the irrigation cess be a separate levy.

Unoccupied arable land still available.

45. There are still 62,849 acres, almost all dry crop land, of unoccupied arable waste, assessed at Rs. 11,642. Some of this I have no doubt will be applied for at the introduction of the settlement and should be granted, so far as is consistent with the requirements of the various Departments under Government, of which the Excise Department and the Forest Department will make the greatest requisition.

Cost of Re-survey.

46. It is not easy to give an exact statement of the cost of the re-survey. The pay of the officers and men came to about Rs. 25,000 but, making the establishment bear its share of the general expenses of the Department, it would be more. At all events two or three years of even the small increase obtained from revision will recoup expenditure.

Limitation of Increase.

47. I would invite attention to my remarks at para 50 of my report on the Davangere Taluk on the question of the limitation of the increase of revenue. In Appendix D (Cols. 32 and 33) will be found for each village the percentage increase and decrease as a result of the revision. There are several instances which, unexplained, might cause surprise. The cases of extreme increase are due to conversion of dry into rice land and to increased area, and therefore do not affect the limitation question, the increase being from new sources. The instances of extreme decrease are mainly due to revenue paying lands, in partly submerged villages, being absorbed into the Marikanave Reservoir and, in some cases, to the reduction of garden assessment, more especially in Group I. Under the rates now proposed instances of serious increase are scarcely possible excepting in the case of 11 villages of group II assessed originally under a dry crop maximum of Re. 0-8-0 now raised to Re. 1-0-0. Of these 11 villages, four yield no revenue, past or present, and four present no serious increase; three villages show serious increase and for these the following figures will speak for themselves :—

No	Village	Old Assessment			New Assessment			Percentage increase
		Dry	Rice	Garden	Dry	Rice	Garden
69	Gudihalli	91	...	2	162	..	3	77
76	Yermagenhalli ...	54	...	7	103	...	5	77
85	Udvalli ...	46	...	11	85	63	18	191

The average dry crop rate for Nos. 69 and 76 above is only 3 annas 8 pies and 6 annas 1 pie per acre respectively. No. 85 shows 191 per cent increase due to new rice and garden under a new tank (see para 42 supra), the increase on dry crop assessment comes to 85 per cent, but the new average rate is only 3 annas and 9 pies per acre. The above are the only villages the increase in which can be regarded as exceptional. They are rightly placed in the 2nd group and the new assessment is so absolutely moderate that not the slightest concern need exist as to its being in any way oppressive.

In re-grouping in a taluk where some of the old average dry rates were as low as 2 annas an acre, some few instances as above are unavoidable.

I confidently recommend the increase in the three villages being sanctioned.

Other points concomitant with introduction of Revised Settlement.

48. I would also invite attention to other points dealt with in the Davangere revision settlement report; the publication of the period for which the revised rates should be fixed (para 54), the announcement of the revised rate (para 55), the absence of any necessity for extending the date up to which relinquishments may be made (para 56), the absence of any necessity for non-levy of excess enhanced assessment in the year of introduction of the new rates (para 57), nor yet in the year following (para 58), and the needlessness of any orders regarding gradually introducing the enhanced assessment (paras 59-61).

49. All that is necessary is to announce the revised rates during the current year and they will take effect in the year 1903-04.

The Appendices to the report will be found alluded to, each in its proper place. A small scale map of the district showing communications and a map of the tract under report, on a larger scale, showing the grouping and other points, will be found appended.

51. It only remains to solicit the sanction of Government to the settlement now proposed, which, as already observed, will be announced as early as possible during the current Revenue year and take effect in 1903-04, which will be the first year of levy.

(2) Letter No. 1880, dated 11th April 1903, from the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, to the Secretary to the Government of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments.

I have the honor to forward herewith in original letter No. 50, dated 24th January 1903, with its five enclosures from the Superintendent of Revenue Survey, submitting his report on the proposed revision of the assessment of the 204 villages of Hiriyur Taluk, with a memorandum of my remarks thereon. It will be seen therefrom that I am of opinion that the Superintendent's proposals being well considered and moderate, may readily be accepted and sanctioned by Government.

For reasons mentioned by me in my letter No. 5 (Camp) dated 30th March 1903, re the revision of assessment in the Davangere Taluk, the revised rates may be announced at the next cold season and the revision assessment introduced with effect from 1904-05.

I.

Remarks of the Revenue Commissioner on the report of the Superintendent Revenue Survey in Mysore, re the revision of assessment in the Hiriyur Taluk.

1. With reference to the letter of the Superintendent of Survey, No. 50 dated 24th January 1903, addressed to me, forwarding proposals for revising the settlement of the Hiriyur Taluk, I have the honor to make the following observations:—

Para 9. Health Conditions.

2. The general health of the taluk is fairly good. The notoriety of Hiriyur town as being the most unhealthy of the taluk headquarters in the district was due, I believe, to the badness of the water-supply in the old town (fort) and to the new town being situated in a low place directly below the tank of the village. These defects are now being remedied by one or two new wells being sunk near the old town, which yield a supply of good drinking water, and by the new town being shifted back to the right bank of the river. The health of the place is reported to have improved of late. Only a few of the improvements suggested by me in 1899 have been so far carried out. The whole scheme, however, is before Government.

Para 13. Wet or Rice lands.

3. Two large tanks have been constructed, one at Uduvalli and the other at Aiyamangala. The latter is called the Kumbargatte tank. The direct return upon the capital spent on these works is not anything like what was expected. Kumbargatte has been in existence for nearly 20 years, but both tanks are appreciated by the raiyats and will be fully utilized in the near future.

4. I find that no mention is made in the report of saguvalikattes or embankments thrown across valleys for the purpose of retaining water so as to afford moisture for the crops raised on the lands. For the construction of such kattes advances are given by Government recoverable in 10 or 12 years, but the majority of them have been built by the occupants themselves without Government aid, some at very heavy cost. The beds of these kattes are enriched by the silt deposited in them. The fact that the original settlement rates have been so easily borne in this taluk may to some extent be accounted for by the presence of these kattes in such large numbers, and I have no hesitation in saying that the proposed rates will sit equally lightly.

Paras 15 and 16. Communications, Markets and Trade

5. The road from Hosdurga to Pavagada running through Hiriyur is in good order only as far as Hiriyur. From that point to Dharampur on the north-east frontier of the taluk, it is only a cart-track. The track, however, is one of considerable importance, as it joins Hiriyur to the important market of Amarapur in the Madaksira Taluk, to which point the trade of all the surrounding parts, both of Mysore and of the neighbouring taluks in British territory, converges. The line between Hiriyur and Dharampur should be taken in hand and made into a good road as early as possible. Colonel Grant recommends a road from Hiriyur to Holalkere. There is at present this connection via Hosdurga, from which town there is direct access to the Railway Station at Hosdurga Road Station, which is much nearer to the inhabitants of Hiriyur and especially to those living in the western parts of the taluk than either Holalkere or the Railway Station of that name four miles further south.

6. There does not appear to be much trade with the Malnad so far as this taluk is concerned. Jola and ragi produced in the taluk beyond what is required for local consumption find a market at present in Marikanave. Rice is taken to Chitaldrug, and when prices run up owing to scarcity in the Bombay Districts, jola and other grains are exported to the nearest Railway Station and sometimes to Davangere. Cotton is exported to Davangere on the one side and Bellary on the other. But the quality of the article produced in the taluk is comparatively inferior.

Para 21. Past and present Survey.

7. There has been a decrease in the area of dry crop which is mainly accounted for by submersion in the Marikanave Reservoir (6,648 acres) and the conversion of 2,853 acres into wet and garden. There is however a noticeable increase in the area of wet and garden lands. It is difficult to estimate what the result of the new Marikanave Reservoir will be. The storage of a large quantity of water in this reservoir and its careful distribution will benefit not only the Hiriyur Taluk, but a portion of the Challakere Taluk also. I believe it has now been decided to drop the water directly into the stream, catch it up by means of anicuts thrown across it at one or more places and thus lengthen rather than widen the area irrigated by the stream. This method possesses the advantage of avoiding the necessity of importing labor and incurring expenditure in order to reclaim and render fit for rice cultivation land that is now either waste or in which dry crops are raised. On both sides of the Vedavati there is a large extent of land in which rice crops are raised by lifting water from the river by means of Kapiles. Such lands will be directly irrigated by channels drawn from the anikats above referred to and the water thus offered will be readily taken by the land-holders.

8. Apart from the revenue aspects of the question, the presence of channels carrying almost a perennial supply of water in this arid tract cannot fail to raise the level of its material well being.

9. The main cause of the increased area (1,660 acres) under garden cultivation is the large number of irrigation wells sunk since the original settlement. The construction of new wells is going on under the additional impetus given by the Takavi Rules.

Para 26. Agricultural Statistics.

10. As in Davangere there has been an appreciable decrease in the number of cattle as recorded at the time of the original settlement compared with what was found to exist at the Revision Survey. As remarked in connection with the report for Davangere, it would be interesting if figures had been given for agricultural cattle and others. The reason given in the report would account for only a part of the loss. Probably the decrease is largely due to the heavy mortality among cattle in the years 1897-99, due to scanty rainfall and failure of fodder.

Para 40. Principles of Garden assessment at Revision illustrated.

11. It would be interesting if the old rates also had been given in the report. The proposals are as usual well considered, the increase is extremely moderate, and altogether the proposals are such as may readily be accepted and sanctioned by Government.

12. I trust Government will have the advantage of having one or two malnad taluks and a few taluks in the Bangalore and Mysore Districts settled at revision by Colonel Grant so as to serve as models for future settlement officers.

13. The prices of staple products have risen between 30 to 40 per cent and there is a large element of permanency in that rise. The net increase of revenue expected from the revision settlement is Rs. 11,856 or just under 20 per cent. The net increase obtained on dry crop land by raising the maxima of the several groups into which the taluk has been divided and by the process of re-grouping villages, is Rs. 10,099 or 9⅓ pies per acre. The area of dry land, the revenue from which is lost by its submersion in the Marikanave tank, is 6,648 acres. As a sort of compensation for this loss 1,373 acres of dry land has been converted into wet and 1,480 acres into garden. While, however, the assessment on wet land has increased by Rs. 3,544, the assessment on garden land has decreased from Rs. 15,077 to Rs. 13,290, in spite of the increase in area of this description of land, viz., 1,666 acres. The average rate for garden has come down from Rs. 2-5-6 to Rs. 1-10-3, and this affords emphatic testimony to the liberality of the policy lately adopted by Government in regard to the assessment of lands under wells.

Para 41. Effect of proposed settlement on the various descriptions of land.

14. With regard to the points referred to in para 48 of his report, I entirely agree with the Superintendent of Revenue Survey that in regard to none of the points touched upon in para 48 is there any necessity for the Bombay practice being adopted in Mysore.

Para 48. Other points concomitant with introduction of revision settlement.

15. Having dealt with the Report of the Superintendent of Survey, I have to state with reference to the remarks of the Superintendent of Survey in para 4 of the letter on the suggestions made by the Deputy Commissioner of Chitaldrug, regarding the villages partially submerged, that it would be best to amalgamate the residue with the neighbouring villages as far as possible.

16. I would also, for reasons so ably set forth by the Superintendent of Revenue Survey, leave the grouping of the 18 villages referred to in para 4 of the Deputy Commissioner's letter, undisturbed.

Para 5 of the Superintendent's letter.

17. The present increase is almost entirely on dry lands, and this in spite of a decrease of 8,315 acres or 4·3 per cent in the area to which the revised rates become applicable. The Deputy Commissioner evidently bases his recommendation on the superior soils that prevail in this tract, but I believe this factor has been already taken into consideration in classifying the lands.

II

Letter No. 50, dated 24th January 1903, from the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, to the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore.

I have the honor to submit my report on the proposed revision of the assessment of 149 villages constituting the present Hiriyur Taluk and 55 villages transferred from the Hiriyur Taluk to the new taluk of Hosdurga from the 28th April 1902, in all 204 villages.

2. The Deputy Commissioner has, in accordance with the usual practice, been given the opportunity of expressing his opinion upon the proposed settlement, and his views will be found in his letter No. 819 of the 20th December 1902, copy of which is attached. While evidently cordially concurring in the suitability of the proposed rates, he makes a few suggestions which I will briefly deal with.

3. At paragraphs 2 and 8, the Deputy Commissioner discusses the question of how best to dispose of the residue of land in certain villages after submersion by the Marikanave Reservoir. The lands of 6 villages totally submerged (see para 3 of Report) disappear entirely from the revenue list and require no further notice. But in 13 villages the submersion has been only partial, and in some of these the residue left high and dry is so small or so unimportant, as to render its retention in the accounts with the status of the village unit, highly inexpedient. The Deputy Commissioner, if I rightly understand him, suggests that all these part villages, with three exceptions, should be clubbed into one or more large blocks for the benefit of the Amrut Mahal Department cattle. I am unable to support this suggestion as

I should be afraid of trouble in connection with water-side privileges which should certainly belong to neighbouring villages. As regards what orders may be passed with reference to grazing rights in the bed of the reservoir, as the water recedes, it is at present premature to make any suggestions.

4. The only remedy will be to incorporate these fractional villages with neighbouring entire villages or amalgamate them where vested interests, of which, however, the village officers are extremely tenacious, permit. The matter presents no very great difficulty and will be attended to when introducing the settlement.

5. At paragraph 4, the Deputy Commissioner suggests that 44 villages, of which he gives a list, should be made into a separate group with a maximum rate for dry crop lands of annas 12 instead of annas 10 as proposed by me. Now in the original settlement, 17 of these villages had a maximum dry rate of annas 8 and 1 of annas 12; and 26 villages had a maximum dry rate of annas 6. If the Deputy Commissioner's suggestion be accepted with reference to the 26 villages which had a maximum rate of only 6 annas, it is obvious that the normal dry assessment will be raised 100 per cent, and even more in some villages when all heads are taken. This is by no means desirable. As regards the 18 villages above mentioned the adoption of the Deputy Commissioner's suggestion would entail no such instances of very extreme and undesirable increase, but there is no doubt that the increase would be abnormal, that is relatively higher than in groups, so far as dry crop land is concerned.

6. The suggestion made by the Deputy Commissioner so far as 18 villages are concerned is a perfectly natural one and would occur to any one so well acquainted with the taluk as he is, but in revising the assessment it is necessary when imposing any increase to assume that the original assessment and the grouping for the purpose of assessment are correct. I myself somewhat infringed this principle when recommending a 10-anna maximum dry rate for villages originally assessed at a 6-anna maximum, but the extremely low rates resulting and the peculiar circumstances of the original settlement, which was to some extent a concession to the past tax system must be my justification. The whole policy of my proposals was to have decidedly low rates for the villages of the 3rd group where the holdings (see para 33 of Report) run large, owing to the looseness of the cultivation. A maximum dry rate of 10 annas is, in my opinion, sufficient under the circumstances. At the same time I must admit that no harm can result nor will there be anything very inconsistent in making a separate group of 18 villages (1 to 17 and 24 of Class III, Appendix D) with a maximum dry rate of annas 12. This would give an increase of Rs. 2,303, over and above Rs. 72,191 estimated as the assessment of the Government occupied land (see statement at para 42 of Report) and the increase for the whole 204 villages under report would, instead of 20 per cent, be about 23½ per cent. If Government desires the above alteration in my proposals, I will have it carried out, but on the whole I am inclined to recommend that my proposals be left intact, having regard to the peculiar circumstances of the northern part of the Hiriyur Taluk, where these villages are, and its undoubtedly precarious climate.

7. It is gratifying to find the Deputy Commissioner attesting so strongly to the great improvement which has taken place in the Hiriyur Taluk since the original settlement and sanguinely anticipating the extension of cultivation in the future. There are still, in the tract now under report, some 62,849 acres of unoccupied arable land, assessed at Rs. 11,642, and as observed at para 45 of my Report, whatever is available of this, after meeting the requirements of Government Departments, is likely to be applied for, for cultivation. Out of unassessed waste also, some land will in due course be applied for. The liberal principles of garden assessment followed (see para 40 of Report) will also, I feel certain, lead to the extension of well irrigation, so that if the limit of possible revenue has been nearly reached, the same thing cannot be said of the prosperity of the people. The Deputy Commissioner anticipates a revolution in the revenue history of the tract from the construction of the Marikanave tank. That the great work in question will certainly have a marked effect upon the general welfare of the country there can be little doubt, even if its success from a revenue point of view falls short of anticipations.

III.

No. 332, dated 5th November 1902, from the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, to the Deputy Commissioner, Chitaldrug District.

I have the honor to forward manuscript copy of my report on the proposed revision of the assessment of the Hiriyur Taluk of the Chitaldrug District, with appendices and illustrative district and taluk maps, and shall feel much obliged by your favoring me with any remarks you may desire to make before my proposals are submitted to Government.

VI.

Letter No. 819, dated 20th December 1902, from the Deputy Commissioner, Chitaldrug District, to the Superintendent of Revenue Survey in Mysore.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 332 of the 6th November 1902, forwarding for my remarks, your report on the proposed revision of the assessment of the Hiriyur Taluk as it stood before the formation of the new Hosdurga Taluk, and to state that the report is so complete and full of interesting matter and so ably dealt with by you that I feel diffident to make any remarks thereon. I beg, however, to bring one or two points to your notice in connection with the proposals submitted to Government.

2. The old Hiriyur Taluk consisted of 215 villages, of which 62 were transferred to the Hosdurga Taluk from the commencement of the current official year. Twenty-one of these villages are bechirakh. Owing to the construction of the Marikanave tank, the six villages named in the margin are, or will be, wholly submerged, while thirteen villages will be partially under water. The name of the latter are given below with particulars of their total area, the extent that will be submerged, and the balance of land which will be available after the completion of the tank :—

1 Tirumalapur.
2 Irvery.
3 Angaldhalli.
4 Pikklihalli.
5 Malgondanhalli.
6 Baggenhalli.

13 Nagatihalli ...	689	337	21	7	97	16	234

3. The three villages which will be entirely submerged will, of course, disappear from the Revenue accounts. As regards the other villages mentioned in the preceding paragraph, it is a question whether with the exception of Lakkihalli, Sirankatte and Itigehalli, it is worth while retaining them as separate moujahs, with the small area of land available in them. Such retention would entail the preparation of the village accounts in all the 13 forms laid down in the Village Officers' Manual. These small bits of land along the margin of the tank may advantageously be formed into a single kaval for the benefit of the Amrut Mahal Department cattle, which may also have the use of the land forming the bed of the tank as the water recedes. The Superintendent of the Amrut Mahal Department is agreeable to this proposal.

4. The maximum rates proposed are very equitable. As regards the grouping of villages, I am inclined to suggest, for your consideration, that the 44 villages of the proposed group III to the north and west of the river Vedavati, named in the margin, may well be formed into a separate group with a maximum rate for dry crop lands of annas 12 instead annas 10 as proposed by you. These villages enjoy the advantage of being situated near the two main roads running through the taluk, and the soil is of a superior kind.

5. The improvement of the taluk, since the original settlement, is marvellous and the construction of the Marikanave tank is sure to effect a revolution in its revenue history. The question of assessing the lands which will be brought under irrigation will, it is noted, be taken up after the completion of the work.

6. The increase of revenue to be obtained by the re-settlement is 20 per cent for the whole taluk. The rates proposed are low, and are sure to lead to extension of cultivation in the future.

(3) Letter No. 35, dated 7th July 1903, from the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, to the Secretary to the Government of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments.

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your letter No. 4674, dated 25th June 1903, forwarding, for my remarks, copy of the Revenue Commissioner's Memo on the subject of the proposed revised settlement of the Hiriyur Taluk of the Chitaldrug District.

2. The Revenue Commissioner so evidently approves of the proposed rates, and on minor points, there is so little difference of opinion between him and myself, that scarcely any remark seems now called for on my part.

3. I certainly made no allusion to saguvalikattes in my present report, but at para 12 of my report No. 52 of 4th February 1869 (see page 56 of Selections, Government Records, No. 7) on the original settlement, I alluded to these useful works, the object of their construction and the certainty of the yield in such places compared with ordinary dry crop lands. Government has not, to my knowledge, constructed any of these saguvalikattes. They are, as the Revenue Commissioner observes, of immense benefit to the country and are very numerous. The soils were classed at original settlement just as we found them and, as was only just, the full fruit of their labour and expenditure was left to the raiyats.

Para 4 of Revenue Commissioner's Memo.

4. My intercession, at para 15 of my original Report, for a new road to Holalkere was in the interests of the villages occupying the extreme north-west of the tract under report, the northernmost villages of those now belonging to the new Hosdurga taluk; I did not recommend a new road from Hiriyur to Holalkere, but only the connection of the extreme north-western villages with Holalkere; some of the villages in question would find it almost as difficult to reach the Marikanave road as to reach Holalkere.

Para 5 of Revenue Commissioner's Memo.

No. R. 463-72, DATED BANGALORE, 11TH AUGUST 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The proposals made by the Superintendent of Revenue Survey for the revision of assessment, refer to the whole of the present Hiriyur taluk and to 55 villages of the newly constituted Hosdurga taluk. Comparing the present condition of this tract with that which prevailed at the original settlement, it is observed that there are marked improvements in respect of trade, facilities of communication, prices and population. Prices have increased by from 30 to 40 per cent, and the causes influencing prices render it more than probable that the present rates will be maintained.

2. The 204 villages form an essentially dry crop country, and the wet and garden lands comprised therein, though of considerable value and importance in such an arid tract, are of inferior quality. The Superintendent has made due allowance to this circumstance and has treated the well gardens liberally under the principles laid down in Government Order No. R. 3138-46—R. F. 8-1900, dated 24th January 1902. It is also satisfactory to note that there was no occasion to re-classify the soil. The rates proposed by the Survey Superintendent are moderate and equitable, and will, as the Revenue Commissioner states, sit lightly on the raiyats. The total expected increase of revenue on occupied lands is Rs. 11,856 or just under 20 per cent. The average old and new rates are given below:—

	Old.			New.
	Rs.	A.	P.	Rs.	A.	P.
Dry	0	3	0	0	4	0
Wet	2	0	11	2	4	3
Garden	2	5	6	1	10	3

3. Government are pleased to sanction the introduction of the revised rates with the guarantee of 30 years. As the season is now far advanced, the revised rates will be announced at the next cold season and will take effect from 1904-05.

4. A Notification to this effect will be published in the Mysore Gazette.

5. The irrigation cess will continue to be levied as a separate cess.

6. With reference to para 2 of the Revenue Commissioner's letter, Government will take early measures to carry out improvements in the town of Hiriyur referred to by him.

7. Government would be glad if the agricultural statistics referred to in para 10 of the Revenue Commissioner's letter could be given in future reports.

8. Government agree that in regard to the villages partially submerged by the Marikanave Reservoir, the remaining portions may be amalgamated with the adjoining villages wherever this can be conveniently done.

No. R. 599-601, DATED BANGALORE, 24TH AUGUST 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—In 1900 the Hemagiri anikat in the Krishnarajpete Taluk breached owing to high floods in the river. To save the standing crops, a ring bund was ordered to be erected and it was pointed out to the Chief Engineer that the construction of a new dam deserved his early consideration. After the construction of the ring bund in November 1900, which, however, was washed away during the floods of the year, the Chief Engineer submitted two alternative estimates—one for repairing the breaches in the existing anikat at a cost of Rs. 10,381 and the other for the construction of a new dam at a cost of Rs. 1,40,400—and stated that the latter was the only satisfactory course to be adopted. He also raised the question of meeting the cost of the work and stated that the Inamdar of Hariharpur, holding lands under the anikat, urged that under the terms of his sanad, the cost of restoration or re-construction of the anikat ought to be borne by Government. The Deputy Commissioner of Mysore was requested to submit a full report on the question of providing funds and on the revenue aspect of the project generally, and also on the contention of the Inamdar of Hariharpur. The Deputy Commissioner has accordingly submitted a report, which gives the following details:—

2. There are three sets of lands benefited by the dam—(a) Government lands, (b) lands of the seven inam villages belonging to the Devamba Agrahar, and (c) lands of the inam villages of Hariharpur, Bommenahalli and Lakshmipur.

3. The financial aspect of the project for constructing a new dam would be.—

(a) Government lands.

	Dry.	Wet.	Kharab & Waste.

to be recovered from the surplus revenue of Maddaka Yachamanahalli and the water rate levied on the dry lands which would be converted into wet, the total recovery per annum being Rs. 3,000 in round figures.

(c) Lands of the other three Inam villages.

Extent ...	Acres 331 Wet.
		Rs.
Proportionate share of cost	...	22,573
Contribution from raiyats.	...	3,310
	Net cost ...	19,263

to be recovered from the Inamdars concerned.

4. The Inamdars of the three villages last mentioned have hitherto been paying their share and the cost of repairs, and they are bound to do so, if any repair are now undertaken by Government, under Government Order No. 16512-21—R 2029, dated 1st April 1893.

5. As in the earlier papers, both dam and channel are spoken of, the contention of the Inamdar of Hariharpur that he is not liable to pay the cost of constructing a new dam, is wholly untenable.

6. The Chief Engineer, however, has in the meantime forwarded a rough estimate for Rs. 5,822 for repairing the breaches of the anikat, prepared by the Superintending Engineer on special duty, who is of opinion that a new dam is not very necessary and that the repairs, if properly executed, would last for years. The Chief Engineer states that there is a good deal to be said in favour of the proposed repairs, if funds for the construction of the new anikat are not available.

7. Government are of opinion that the proposal of the Superintending Engineer to repair the anikat, to which the Chief Engineer has no objection, should be given a trial. The Secretary, Public Works Department, is requested to have a proper estimate made for the work early, so that it may be started and completed in the next hot weather. The funds required for the work will, for the time being, be advanced by Government, and recovered in due course and proportion from the revenue of the Maddaka Yachamanahalli village, and from the Inamdars of Hariharpur, Bommenahalli and Lakshmipur. The arrangement made by Government years ago, undertaking to maintain the anikat and channel, including head works, out of the revenues of Yachamanahalli, does not absolve the Inamdars from their liability to provide funds for extraordinary repairs necessitated by breaches of the kind in question, occasioned by high floods in the river. But as they are not at present in a position to pay the amount, the money will be advanced and recovered in due course.

8. The more important question to be dealt with is the construction of a new anikat. If after carrying out the repairs referred to in the foregoing paragraph, the construction of a new dam is still found necessary, the proposals made by the Deputy Commissioner of Mysore, may be approved. It has been represented by one of the Inamdars that by a little effort, the raiyats may be persuaded to increase their contribution, and by a better scrutiny the estimated cost may be reduced. The first suggestion is commended to the consideration of the Deputy Commissioner, and the second will of course be examined by the Secretary, Public Works Department.

About funds for this work also, there is no other way than that Government should come forward with a loan in the interests of the large number of raiyats depending upon this source of irrigation. A low rate of interest may be charged and the transaction treated on the same lines as the loan advanced to Inamdars when the Ramaswami channel was extended. The Inamdars of Hariharpur, Bommenahalli and Lakshmipur will also be liable to bear their share of contribution for this project.

Letter No. 58, dated 4th August 1903, from the Director of Meteorology in Mysore, to the Secretary to the Government of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments.

With reference to your Memo No. R. 375, dated 1st August 1903, forwarding copy of letter No. 506—S., dated 19th June, from the Meteorological Reporter to the Government of India, to the Secretary to the Government of Mysore, and requesting that the copies of final revised rainfall statements therein referred to may be prepared and sent by this office, I have the honor to submit that this Department has supplied all the Raingauge Stations in the Province with printed rain record books sufficient to last 50 years for the daily rainfall at each station to be carefully and neatly posted from day to day very soon after the close of the calendar year, blank daily rain-record forms are sent to all stations through the Deputy Commissioners of Districts with a request that they be filled in carefully from the rain record books by the observers and returned direct to this office. From these rain records I compile and publish the Annual Report on Rain Registration in Mysore. This office does not get either weekly or monthly rain returns like those submitted to your office by the Deputy Commissioners of Districts. I have more than once brought to the notice of Government the discrepancies discovered in this office between the rainfall figures published in the Mysore Gazette and those entered in the rain returns sent to this office. If the rainfall figures submitted by Deputy Commissioners to your office and those sent to this office by the observers be both taken from the permanent rain record books, I do not see any reason for the existence of discrepancies.

As this office receives only one annual return for each station (at the end of every calendar year), I have the honor to submit that the final revised statements requested by the Meteorological Reporter to the Government of India can be prepared only in your office, which receives weekly and monthly rain returns from the several districts.

No. R. 649-57, DATED BANGALORE, 27TH AUGUST 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—Communicated to the Deputy Commissioners of Districts. If the rainfall is regularly posted up in the prescribed register and if the returns are prepared from that register week by week and month by month, there is no reason apparent why the returns furnished to this office and to Mr. Cook's office should at all differ. Deputy Commissioners are requested to investigate this matter in the light of remarks repeatedly made in Government Reviews of the Annual Reports of the Meteorological Department, and to submit a full report of the causes of the variation noticed, and of the steps they propose taking to ensure correctness and uniformity in the future. Mr. Cook will also do well to examine a few typical cases himself or by one of his Assistants, and report how they have arisen. It is of the utmost importance that the rainfall reported in the weekly season reports appearing in the Gazette should agree with the facts recorded in the local register.

No. R. 724-34—R. F. 82-96-97, DATED BANGALORE, 29TH AUGUST 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—With reference to the complaints of raiyats, Government observe that the assessment in question is not a new tax imposed for the first time in 1894, but is a tax which has long been recognised as properly leviable and which the order of 1894 merely recognised and placed on a regular basis. In his circular order dated 22nd October 1860, the late Superintendent of the Chitaldrug Division directed that vacant sites should be assessed at the lowest rate of tax prescribed for houses. Similarly, such tax was being levied in various other parts of the State. Applications for the alienation of assessed State lands for building purposes are not infrequently received from villages where there is much building space, for which, however, private rights are always set up. The prospect of building on such vacant sites being very remote, it is but right that the persons who wish to retain such superfluous lands, should be made to pay some assessment on them.

2. As regards the mode and rate of fixing the assessment, the suggestions made by the Survey and Settlement Commissioner are approved and the following rules are accordingly laid down :—

i. The assessment should be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner.

ii. Village site land occupied by houses and backyards attached thereto should not be assessed if the house and attached backyard do not occupy more than ten guntas. Should the area thus occupied exceed 10 guntas, the excess will be assessed.

iii. An acreage assessment should be imposed upon all other occupied land, left vacant within village sites, whether building site land or land ordinarily used for purposes of agriculture.

iv. The rate of assessment to be fixed should not exceed the highest rate in the village of the class of land (dry, wet, garden or coffee) to which the land to be assessed belongs.

v. The minimum assessment to be fixed on lands liable to be assessed as above will be eight annas.

vi Vacant sites built upon hereafter will become subject to the provisions of Rule ii above.

3. These rules do not apply to vacant sites in Municipal towns, which, however, come under the operation of Government Order No. 1513-30—L. F. 46-96, dated 29th July 1896.

4. The assessment levied in accordance with the rules laid down in para 2 above will be treated as supplementary to the Mohatarfa house-tax and credited to a subordinate head under that revenue.

5. Government also direct that Local cess need not be levied on the tax in question, as no such cess is levied on Mohatarfa.

6. Government are not sure that 10 guntas do not represent too high a maximum. Taken as a square, it means a side of about 35 yards. A maximum of 5 guntas represents, as a square, a side of just under 25 yards, which perhaps is enough, more especially as it is proposed to charge only the excess. Deputy Commissioners and the Revenue Commissioner are requested to consider this point and submit a report, if in their opinion a further modification of the rules in this respect is called for. There need be no delay, however, in giving effect to the rules hereby laid down.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

Letter No. 7860—531, dated 27th June 1903, from the Excise Commissioner in Mysore, reporting on the Sringeri Matt's claim to the toddy revenue of the marginally noted 13 villages in the Taluks of Chikmagalur and Koppa, Kadur District.

Koppa Taluk.

(13) Sirukaradi

No. 98-9—Ex. F. 13-01, DATED BANGALORE, 3RD AUGUST 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—Of the 13 villages referred to above, Belavadi contains a date grove, and Sirukaradi a bagani grove. The sannad concedes to the Matt "Ichal pairu" and the Inam Settlement, the Abkari revenue of all the villages. The Deputy Commissioner, Kadur District, and the Excise Commissioner are satisfied that the Matt's claim to the Excise revenue from toddy of these villages is established. The enjoyment of this revenue by the Matt for 12 years prior to 1892-93 is presumed and the claim will accordingly be allowed subject to Rules 2, 5 and 13 contained in Government Order No. 2074-83—R. F. 166-92, dated 2nd August 1901.

2. The refund bill with all the necessary details promised by the Excise Commissioner is awaited.

Letter No 7855—526, dated 27th June 1903, from the Excise Commissioner in Mysore, submitting the record of enquiry relating to the Inamdars' claim to the toddy revenue of the Kannapura Jodi village in the Mudgere Taluk, Kadur District.

No. 100-1—Ex. F. 13-01, DATED BANGALORE, 3RD AUGUST 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—There is no toddy shop, but there are a few bagani trees in the above village. The Inamdars' claim to its toddy Excise revenue was investigated by Mr. Sparkes in 1894, who found that the claim was not established. When a fresh enquiry was attempted under the rules issued in the matter in August 1901, the Inamdars failed to appear and prove their claim, though they were duly served with notice. Government are therefore, of opinion that the Inamdars are entitled to nothing more than tree-rent. No amount is due to them under the Vend Farm system, as their trees were not then leased out by Government, and for the subsequent period they were at liberty to lease out their own trees.

No 102-3—Ex. F. 13-01, DATED BANGALORE, 3RD AUGUST 1903

ORDER THEREON.—The village belongs to Galipuje Palara Devara Matt, Chandradrona Parvata. The village has neither a toddy shop nor trees. The nirup relied on by the Matt and the Inam Settlement do not concede to it the toddy Excise revenue. The Matt has therefore no right to the Excise revenue from toddy and no amount is payable to it under this finding.

PETITION

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

BEFORE THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

REFERRED CASE No. 2 OF 1902-03.

Parties.

1. Ramakka.
2. Chikka Adi Subbaiya.
3. Parvatamma.
4. Venkatarayappa.

Subject.

Letter No. 140, dated 23rd July 1902, from the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, submitting, for orders, the records relating to the shanbhogi office of Yellampalli village, Bagepalli Taluk.

Facts of the Case.

One Papanna, the last registered shanbhog of Yellampalli village, died on 6th October 1901, without any lineal or collateral near heirs. Chikka Adi Subbaiya, a distant agnate of the deceased (descendant of the brother of the great-grandfather of the deceased), his second wife Parvatamma and his daughter Subbamma by the first wife, Nanjappa and Seenappa, the descendants of the sister of the grandfather of Chikka Adi Subbaiya, severally prayed for the registry of the shanbhogi office in question to be made in their names. Venkatarayappa, who, after Papanna's death, was appointed to officiate pending further orders, Hanumantaiya, Chidambarappa and Ramakka, the descendants and heirs of the Sirkar shanbhogs, also prayed for the registry of the office in their names. The Amildar of the Bagepalli Taluk, having reported that Chikka Adi Subbaiya had become ineligible to succeed to the vacant office owing to his dismissal from the shanbhogi office of Aregepalli and certain other villages, for embezzlement of Government money committed in 1891, the Sub-Division Officer of Chikballapur, directed the registry of the office in question in the name of Parvatamma, the second wife of Chikka Adi Subbaiya. Against this order Ramakka and Venkatarayappa preferred an appeal to the Deputy Commissioner, who reports that the order of dismissal affecting Chikka Adi Subbaiya may be rescinded regard being had to the expiry of 12 years from its date, to the repayment to Government of the amount embezzled and also to the indirect part played by the dismissed shanbhog in the matter of embezzlement.

Decision.

An appeal having been preferred to the Deputy Commissioner against an order of the Sub-Division Officer, the Deputy Commissioner should have disposed of it in such manner as to him seemed proper, leaving the party aggrieved to prefer an appeal to Government if so advised. He should not have made this ad-interim reference to Government and asked them if they were prepared to revise the order of dismissal passed by a previous Deputy Commissioner. The case is remanded for disposal by the Deputy Commissioner.

No. 204—P. F. 43-03, DATED 14TH AUGUST 1903.

Copy of the above is forwarded to the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, together with the records received with his letter No. C. 140, dated 23rd July 1902.

Appeal No. 120 of 1902-03.

Appellant		Respondent
Siddaramappa.	Versus	Sivanna.

Subject.

Appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner, Chitaldrug District, declining to divide the pateli office of Talya and its major villages in the Holalkere Taluk into Revenue and Police patelis and to appoint the appellant to one of them.

Facts of the case.

Under an order passed in 1865 by the then Deputy Commissioner, the appellant and the respondent had, in succession to their respective fathers, held the pateli office in question jointly till 1901, when Mr. M. S. Narayana Rao (Deputy Commissioner) relieved the appellant of the duties and made the respondent the sole patel, as it was inconvenient to have two patels for one village. On appeal, the Government in their decision No. 1957—P. F. 5401, dated 17th April 1902, upheld the Deputy Commissioner's order but directed that the appellant be registered as a hakdar. Thereupon the appellant prayed that the pateli office in question might be divided into Revenue and Police patelis and one of them given to him. The Deputy Commissioner declined to grant this prayer. Hence the appeal.

Decision.

In Government decision dated 17th April 1902, respondent was given the sole pateli of Talya with its hamlets and appellant's name was ordered to be entered under the head of hakdars. Appellant now wants the pateli to be divided into Revenue ane Police pateli and one of the offices given to him. The Deputy Commissioner thinks this is undesirable and has rejected appellant's claim. Government do not see reason to differ from this decision. Appeal rejected.

Appellant Hutcha Hanumaiya.

Subject.

Appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, directing the resumption of land Survey No. 163—2 of Tyamagondlu village, Nelamangla Taluk, which had been granted to the appellant for temporary cultivation.

Facts of the case.

The land in question, which once formed the appellant's holding, was acquired for the extension of the Tyamagondlu town, but remained unused for building purposes, there being no immediate necessity. On the application of the appellant, the land was, with the consent of the Municipal Board, granted to him in August 1900, for temporary cultivation for one year on a rental of Rs. 8-8-0. On the expiry of this period, the matter came to the notice of the Deputy Commissioner, Mr. M. S. Narayana Rao, who observed that the grant of the land for cultivation, even temporarily, was illegal, and directed that the party in possession be ousted immediately. Thereupon, the appellant was allowed three months' time to remove the crops, etc., and vacate the land. The appellant having failed to do so, a notice dated 5th January 1902, was served on him to vacate the land within three days from the date of its receipt. Hence the appeal.

Decision.

Subject.

Appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District, declining to recognise the private transfer to the appellant of the shanbhogi office of Narihalli Channarayapatna taluk.

Facts of the case.

In March 1899, the respondent presented a petition to the Amildar of Channarayapatna taluk, resigning the shanbhogi office in question in favor of the appellant for a consideration of a sum of Rs. 700. While this application was pending orders before the Deputy Commissioner, the respondent, as desired by him, was, on the substitution of one Lingannaiya, granted six months' leave which was subsequently extended by nine months. In January 1901, the respondent returned from leave and prayed that he may be put in charge of his office and permitted to withdraw his resignation which remained still undisposed of. On the recommendation of the Amildar, the Assistant Commissioner in charge of the taluk granted the respondent's request. On appeal the Deputy Commissioner upheld the Assistant Commissioner's order.

Decision.

As no final formal order has been passed on the application for transfer of the office in question, this case is remitted to the Deputy Commissioner, for an enquiry into the issue and for a decision after allowing both the parties to place all their facts before him.

Application for review of Government Order No. 8525—P. 1134, dated 14th March 1898, rejecting the claim of the petitioner to the shanbhogi office of Settihalli circle, Seringapatam Taluk.

Facts of the case.

In 1879 the petitioner's father Anantaramaiya, who was the hakdar and officiator shanbhog of the Settihalli Circle, was convicted of criminal breach of trust by a public servant and dismissed from service with forfeiture of hak. Thereupon one Chikka Dasappa, a brother of the 1st counter-petitioner and unconnected with Anantaramaiya's family, was appointed to the office. In the enquiry which followed after Anantaramaiya's dismissal, one Subbaiya (now deceased), a cousin of Anantaramaiya, disclaimed all right to the shanbhogi office and left Anantaramaiya's wife and son to urge their claims. The petitioner did not then set forth his claim, though a notice was issued to him. In 1882 he began to petition the Deputy Commissioner alleging that he was the adopted son of the said Subbaiya and claiming the office. In 1894 he brought a regular suit for the recovery of the office from the counter-petitioners. The Assistant Commissioner who tried the suit held that, as Subbaiya did not make mention of the alleged adoption, when his claims were enquired into after Anantaramaiya's dismissal, that, as, at a later stage when he put forward the theory of adoption, he made two inconsistent statements, one before the Amildar and the other before the Assistant Commissioner, regarding the performance of the 'Dattu homam,' that as the plea was first raised by the petitioner in 1882 after his father Anantaramaiya had been released from his imprisonment, and that as no adoption deed had been produced, the petitioner's adoption by Subbaiya was not proved, and he accordingly dismissed the suit. The Deputy Commissioner being also of the same opinion, dismissed the appeal of the petitioner. His second appeal was also dismissed by Government in their Proceedings No. 8525—P. 1134, dated 14th March 1898, on the ground that there were concurrent findings in both the Lower Courts that the adoption set up was false. The petitioner now prays for review of this Government Order, and has produced certain original documents in support of his adoption by the said Subbaiya and states that he did not produce these documents before the Lower Courts, as he was not then aware of their existence.

Decision.

The case will be remanded for a finding on the question of adoption alleged by petitioner after considering the documents now produced and re-trying the case.

Review Application No. 15 of 1902-03.

Petitioner—Ramappa.

Subject.

Application for review of Government Order No. 3, dated 26th February 1902, rejecting the petitioner's appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, declining to consider the claim of the petitioner to the trees on Survey No. 59 of Kariapalli village, Chintamani Taluk.

Facts of the case.

The petitioner Ramappa was enjoying for a long time the usufruct of the trees on Survey No. 59 of Kariapalli village, on the ground that the trees were planted by his father Kadrappa. On the complaint of one Vajar Virappa on 13th August 1898 that the shanbhog and patel were clandestinely enjoying the produce of the trees on certain lands, an enquiry was held, at which it was ascertained that Survey No. 59 had been entered in the Settlement Register as belonging to Government, while in the chitta account for Prabhava (1846-47) the tope was said to have been planted for charitable purposes, and in the chitta account for Rowdri (1860-61) and the 'Gida Patrika' for 1886, the tope was stated to have been in the enjoyment of Kadrappa and his son Ramappa, the petitioner. On 9th August 1899, the Deputy Commissioner directed the applicant to show cause why the value of the produce of the trees in question, since the Survey Settlement, should not be recovered from him, as the applicant (shanbhog) had failed to have his right, if any, recorded in the Settlement Register as required by Section 118, Land Revenue Code. The petitioner pleaded that he was not the shanbhog at the time of the Survey Settlement, but the Deputy Commissioner rejected his claim to the trees as it was neither recognised during the Survey Settlement nor prosecuted within two years after its completion. The petitioner's appeal against this order was rejected by Government in their Order No. 3, dated 26th February 1902. Hence the present application to His Highness the Maharaja, praying for a review of the Government Order.

Decision.

The present claim cannot be construed as a claim to be entered in the Survey records under Section 118. The appellant was apparently in enjoyment of the produce of the trees on the Survey number in question, and the right of the appellant was for the first time questioned in 1898 on the complaint of one Virappa. The appellant relies upon certain entries in the chittas of 1853, 1859, 1886 and other documents which he offers to produce at the time of enquiry. The case is referred for disposal by the Deputy Commissioner on its merits.

Subject.

Appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, declining to transfer to the appellant's name the khata of Survey No. 20 of Hulimangala, Hoskote village, Malur Taluk.

Facts of the case.

One Venkatesabhatta, a brother of the 2nd and the 3rd respondents, was the khatedar of the land in question. After his death it was registered in the name of his son, Rama Rao, the 1st respondent. The appellant, who is the son of Achanabhatta, another brother of Venkatesabhatta, claimed the transfer of khata to his name on the ground that in 1886 the three shares belonging to the three respondents respectively, in the said land had been sold to his father, Achanabhatta, by a registered deed. As the respondents, however, objected to the transfer, both the Assistant and the Deputy Commissioner referred the appellant to establish his claim in the Civil Courts and declined to order the transfer prayed for.

Decision.

This is an appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner declining to transfer the patta and referring parties to the Civil Courts. Under the Revenue Rules the order is final and there is no appeal to Government from it. The present appeal is rejected accordingly.

Subject.

Appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner, Tumkur District, declining to transfer to the appellant's name the khate of Survey Nos. 51, 169 and 171 of Kolal village, Tumkur Taluk.

Facts of the case.

The khate of the lands in question stands in the name of the appellant's cousin Ramappa, the respondent. In July 1900, the appellant applied for the transfer of the khate to his name on the ground that he had been in the enjoyment of those lands for over 15 years and had himself been paying the kandayam. The respondent, who is the khatedar, protested against the transfer, and the Deputy Commissioner thereupon declined to disturb the khate and referred the appellant to establish his hak in a Civil Court. The appellant contends that as he had previously obtained a Civil Court decree in his favor as regards one of the lands, viz., Survey No. 51, it is not necessary for him to go to the Civil Court again as regards the other two numbers.

Decision.

Under Rule 70 of the Land Revenue Rules, the Deputy Commissioner's order regarding transfer of khate is final. The decree relied upon by the appellant cannot give a title to him, the respondent not having been a party to it. This appeal is accordingly rejected.

Appeal No. 70 of 1902-03.

Appellant		Respondents
Venkataramanaiya	versus	1. Nambalada Subba Rao
		2. Seshagiriappa.

Subject.

Appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner, Shimoga District, in re the distribution and registry of the several shanbhogi circles of Muttur Magani, Tirthahalli Taluk.

Facts of the case.

Muttur Magani in the Tirthahalli Taluk consisted of 20 villages and the ancestors of one Untur Subba Rao and the appellant and latterly these were performing the shanbhogi duties of the villages and receiving the remuneration in equal shares. These villages were constituted into 6 circles—Nos. 50, 51, 52, 53, 54 and 55—by the Survey Department, and during the Pakka Potgi Settlement on 26th June 1901, the Assistant Commissioner distributed the circles as follows:—

Circle No.	Potgi. Rs.	a.	p.	Name.
50	127	0	0	Venkataramanaiya (appellant).
52	112	0	0	Lakshmamma, wife of Venkataramanaiya.
53	120	4	0	Nanjamma, mother of Venkataramanaiya.
51	110	12	0	Seshagiriappa, 2nd respondent and minor son of Untur Subba Rao.
54	133	4	0	Untur Subba Rao.
55	112	12	0	Tippaiya.

Against this distribution Untur Subba Rao, the barawarddar, and Nambalada Subba Rao (the respondent), a cousin of the appellant Venkataramanaiya, appealed to the Deputy Commissioner, the former urging that either circle Nos. 52, 54 and 55 or Nos. 53, 54 and 55 may be given to him. and the latter urging that he and his brother may be each given a circle. Thereupon the Deputy Commissioner re-distributed the circles as follows:—

Circle No.	Potgi. Rs.	a.	p.	Name.
50	127	0	0	Venkataramanaiya.
51	110	12	0	Nambalada Subba Rao.
52	112	0	0	Seshagirappa, minor son of Untur Subba Rao.
53	120	4	0	Nanjamma, mother of Venkataramanaiya.
54	133	4	0	Untur Subba Rao.
55	112	12	0	Tippaiya.

Against this distribution the appellant has appealed to Government urging that Nambalada Subba Rao, the first respondent, has no hak to the office, being a member of a divided family, and that circle Nos. 50, 51 and 53 ought to be registered in his name after differently constituting them.

Decision.

The distribution of circles appears to have been equitably made by the Deputy Commissioner. Government see no reason to interfere. The appeal is rejected.

Appeal No. 25 of 97-98.

Appellant Kapinegauda — versus — Respondent, Kempegauda patel.

Subject.

Appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, rejecting the appellant's claim to the pateli of Padavalapatna village, Nagamangala Taluk.

Facts of the case.

Harugauda who was one of the hakdar officiator patels of the above village, continued to perform the pateli duties till 1894, when, on account of old age and infirmity, he applied to the Amildar for transfer of the baraward to the name of his (adopted) son Kempegauda, the respondent. He also gave a deposition before the Amildar on 23rd July 1894, that he being issueless, had adopted the respondent, a uterine brother of the appellant, as his son and had brought him up. After some correspondence, the Sub-Division Officer on 18th July 1895, ordered that there was no necessity to change the baraward during Harugauda's life-time but that the work could be conducted by Kempegauda as his (adoptive) father's assistant. On 11th September 1895, Harugauda renewed his application resigning his hak in favor of his adopted son, and after some enquiry the Sub-Division Officer on 9th October 1895, ordered the transfer of registry prayed for, and the respondent continued to perform the duties as registerdar patel. Harugauda having died, the appellant Kapinegauda appealed on 20th January 1897, to the Deputy Commissioner, alleging that he, but not Kempegauda, was the adopted son of the deceased patel and that the latter (Kempegauda) had been illegally put in possession of the office as well as the lands of the deceased. The Deputy Commissioner, however, doubted the adoption set up by the appellant and rejected his appeal, referring him to establish the alleged adoption in a Civil Court. On appeal, the Government on 24th January 1898, remanded the case to the Deputy Commissioner for a full enquiry and a finding on the question of adoption, and the Deputy Commissioner with his letter No. 494, dated 5th December 1902, submits the finding recorded by the Extra Assistant Commissioner, French

Rocks (Mr. P. Sreenivasa Rao), and states that the appellant does not appear to be the adopted son of Harugauda as alleged by him. He further explains that the delay in the submission of the final report to Government was due to the loss of the records of the original enquiry in the Sub-Division office.

Decision.

The case is a simple one. The last holder of the pateli was Harugauda who represented that the respondent Kempegauda was his adopted son and prayed that the pateli might be registered in his (Kempegauda's) name. This was in 1895, before his death. The pateli was registered accordingly in the respondent's name and he is in possession of it. The contention of Kapinegauda, the appellant, who is the respondent's uterine brother, is that it was himself that was adopted by the last patel Harugauda and not the respondent. This he has failed to prove. On the facts as now before Government, Kempegauda is the rightful representative of Harugauda and the Government see no reason to disturb him. The appeal is accordingly rejected.

2. The statement relied upon by the respondent and referred to in his deposition (dated 25th September 1902) before Mr. P. Sreenivasa Rao, has not been sent up. The loss of records of the original equiry is not creditable to the Sub-Division and the Taluk offices. The Deputy Commissioner will take due notice of this loss.

No. 256—P. F. 54-03, DATED BANGALORE, 29TH AUGUST 1903.

Copy of the above is forwarded to the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, together with the original depositions received with his letter No. 494, dated 5th December 1902, through the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore.

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

READ—

Government Proceedings No. 233-42—Muz. F. 102-92, dated 14th December 1892, laying down rules for the succession of Gurus to Matts enjoying State Grants.

Petition Registered No 1436, dated 2nd March 1903, from Shama Doss, claiming the Mahantship of the Bhyragi Matt at Melkote, in the room of the Mahant Raghava Doss, deceased.

AND—

Correspondence ending with letter No. 19, dated 29th July 1903, from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, reporting on the above.

No. 440-1—MUZ. F. 37-1902, DATED BANGALORE, 12TH AUGUST 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The Bhyragi Matt at the foot of the hill leading to the Sri Narasimhaswami temple at Melkote, Seringapatam Taluk, is a Muzrai Institution enjoying a cash grant of Rs. 14-1-0 per mensem from Government and some inam lands. Service is reported to be daily rendered in the Matt and sadavarth given to Bhyragis.

2. From the records received with the Deputy Commissioner's letter read above, it is observed that Raghava Doss, the last Mahant of the Matt, died in October 1902, having selected one Rama Prasanna Ramanuja Doss to succeed him.

3. When the death of the late Mahant Raghava Doss was reported and the nomination of Rama Prasanna Ramanuja Doss as his successor was recommended by the Deputy Amildar of French Rocks in January 1903, the Sub-Division Officer of French Rocks (Mr. N. Venkat Rao) sanctioned the nomination temporarily on his own authority, contrary to Government Proceedings No. 233-42—Muz. F. 102-92, dated 10th December 1892. The Sub-Division Officer's action in this respect was irregular.

4. From the records now received from the Deputy Commissioner, it is observed that it has been the custom of this Matt to appoint celibates to succeed to the Mahantship, that Rama Prasanna Ramanuja Doss, who is a bachelor, was recognized by the late Mahant as his successor and that he is qualified in every way to be the Mahant of the Matt, having been also selected by the disciples of the Matt. In these circumstances the Deputy Commissioner recommends the succession of the said Rama Prasanna Ramanuja Doss as the Mahant of the Bhyragi Matt. The Government of His Highness the Maharaja are accordingly pleased to sanction the recommendation of the Deputy Commissioner, who is requested to disburse the tasdik amount to the said Rama Prasanna Ramanuja Doss from the date of the former Mahant's demise, as the nominee is reported to have been actually performing the duties of the Mahant since that date in a satisfactory manner.

5. As regards Shama Doss, who claims the Mahantship, the Deputy Commissioner reports that he is a married man and as such is disqualified for the place and moreover not recognized as his successor by the late Mahant. His petition is accordingly rejected.

Correspondence ending with letter No. 3501—589, dated 20th February 1903, from the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, regarding the alienation of the Inam granted for "Tafe service" in the Sri Venkatramanaswami temple at Ronur, Srinivaspur Taluk.

AND—

Docket No. 36, dated 19th November 1902, from the Superintendent of Inam Settlements in Mysore.

No. 433-9—MUZ. F. 16-1902, DATED BANGALORE, 12TH AUGUST 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—The kayamgutta village of Devasandradagudda in the Srinivaspur Taluk, is a "Devadaya" Inam granted for "Tafe service" in the Sri Venkatramanaswami temple at Ronur. During the Inam Settlement in 1880, the village was confirmed to Ronur Annaiya and five others noted in the margin for "Tafe service" in the temple on kayamgutta tenure subject to the annual payment of Rs. 18. Subsequently in 1893, the village was finally confirmed on a combined quit-rent of Rs. 58 inclusive of the old kayamgutta amount.

Annaiya	...	$\frac{4}{10}$
Ramasubba	..	$\frac{1}{10}$
Sithi	...	$\frac{1}{10}$
Subbi	...	$\frac{1}{10}$
Venkatramana	...	$\frac{1}{10}$
Venkatrama	..	$\frac{1}{10}$

2. It having been brought to the notice of the Deputy Commissioner of the Kolar District, that, Annaiya had mortgaged his half share of the village in October 1895, for a consideration of Rs. 200, a notice was served on the alienee (Chandravadana—also a Tafe woman), under Clause B of the Rules published under Notification No. 266, dated 17th November 1877, requiring her to restore the land within six months. But, she having failed to comply as above, the Deputy Commissioner ordered that the portion of the land alienated should be resumed and placed under Government management, and that the same should not be given back to the alienor. Annaiya (the alienor) since redeemed in 1898 the portion of the Inam land alienated by him and claims restoration of his portion of the land, as, in the meanwhile, the entire village had been, by mistake, brought under Government management by the Amildar. Two of the shareholders, viz., Ramasubba and Subbi had also alienated their respective shares to one Subbanna in 1897 and 1894 respectively, but this fact was not brought to the notice of the local authorities, until Subbanna petitioned the Amildar on the 3rd September 1898, praying for the recognition of his right to perform the "Tafe service" in the temple. Thereupon the alienors were also served with a notice to redeem their shares within six months which they have failed to do.

3. Upon a reference made from this office in January 1900, the Deputy Commissioner reports that the Amildar, instead of resuming only Annaiya's half share in the village, resumed the entire village, apparently on the ground that all the hissedars were jointly enjoying the village, that Annaiya since redeemed his share, that Ramasubba and Subbi being unable to do "Tafe service" on account of old age and other causes, sold their shares to Subbanna and recommends therefore that the alienation in Subbanna's favor may be approved and his right recognised as he has consented to do "Tafe service" in the temple for his two-tenths share.

4. The other three hissedars, viz., Sithi, Venkatrama and Venkatramana have also petitioned the Amildar that they have been deprived of their respective shares owing to the fault of their co-sharers.

5. The Superintendent of Inam Settlements, who was consulted in the matter, states that the sale by hissedars Nos. 2 and 4, viz., Ramasubba and Subbi, of their shares is opposed to the rules laid down in the Chief Commissioner's Notification of the 17th November 1877. The Deputy Commissioner states that Subbanna has been performing the "Tafe services" of the shares of Ramasubba and Subbi for the past ten years, and that he will continue to satisfactorily perform the same and recommends that his name be registered for the two-tenths share in the village in the place of Ramasubba and Subbi.

6. With reference to the foregoing, the Government observe that as regards the half-share mortgaged by Annaiya in 1895, who since redeemed his share, and as regards the shares of Nos. 3, 5 and 6, viz., Sithi, Venkatramana and Venkatrama there is no difficulty. Their lands which have been wrongly taken under Government management, should be restored to them. Regarding the two-tenths share of Nos. 2 and 4, viz., Ramasubba and Subbi, the Deputy Commissioner is of opinion that as the alienee Subbanna has been satisfactorily performing for the past ten years, the "Tafe services" formerly done by the alienors, and as he is willing to continue to perform the same, his right may be recognised and his name registered in the place of the alienors. The Inam Superintendent simply states that the sale by Ramasubba and Subbi in favor of Subbanna is opposed to the Rules of 1877. With reference to this, the Government observe that so far as the alienors are concerned, as they have unauthorizedly alienated the "Devadaya Service Inam land" in their possession, their conduct has to be dealt with, under the Rules of 1877, and accordingly it is hereby declared that neither they nor any of their descendants will have any right to claim the Inam land either now or in the future. As regards the alienee Subbanna it happens that he actually performs the service formerly done by the alienors and has also paid money for the lands in question. Under these circumstances, the Government are pleased to approve of the Deputy Commissioner's recommendation to register the land in the name of the alienee, as such a transfer is in accordance with Government Proceedings No. 3857-65—R. 100, dated 24th August 1882, in which it is stated that "if the mortgagees are qualified to do the "work they may be appointed to the offices in preference to strangers as some com-"pensation for the loss of their money." The alienee should be informed that he has no right to the land by right of his purchase, which was an unauthorized transaction but that it is granted to him purely on account of the service to be performed and that it will be resumed if the service is not duly performed, or if any unauthorized alienation is made by him. This special sanction should not be taken as a precedent, the arrangement now authorized being made under the peculiar circumstances of this case. The Superintendent of Inam Settlements is requested to make the necessary alterations in the Inam Register.

Deputy Secretary, Muzrai Department.

Letter No. 1430, dated 16th June 1903, from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, regarding the restoration of the resumed cash grant of Re. 0-15-6 per mensem formerly endowed to the Sanyasikatte Sri Anjaneyaswami temple of Kethamaranahalli village, in the Bangalore Taluk.

AND—

Docket No. 20, dated 31st July 1903, from the Superintendent of Inam Settlements in Mysore, forwarding a copy of the Inam Register pertaining to the resumption of the cash grant.

No. 466-8—Muz. F. 36-96, DATED BANGALORE, 18TH AUGUST 1903.

ORDER THEREON.—During the Inam Settlement in 1876, the cash grant of Re. 0-15-6 per mensem endowed to the Sanyasikatte Sri Anjaneyaswami temple (styled in the Inam Register as Narayanakatte Anjaneya's temple) was resumed owing to the then dilapidated condition of the temple and the non-performance of the puja therein.

2. The Government in their Proceedings No. 1162—Muz. F. 36-96, dated 4th February 1902 sanctioned the removal of the idol of Sri Anjaneyaswami to the new Vishnu temple of Sri Gopalakrishnaswami constructed at the Malleswaram Extension, Bangalore City. The Deputy Commissioner reports that the idol has been consecrated in the new Vishnu temple and that puja is being regularly conducted, and he therefore recommends the restoration of the resumed cash grant.

3. Under these circumstances, the Government are pleased to sanction the restoration of the resumed annual cash grant of Rs. 11-10-0 to the Sri Anjaneyaswami temple situated within the precincts of the Vishnu temple at Malleswaram.

4. The Superintendent of Inam Settlements is requested to make the necessary entries in his Registers, and the Comptroller to Government will arrange for the payment of the sanctioned amount with effect from the 1st July 1903.
